

Heaven's Court System

The top three courts are comparable to the Bet Din (the bench of three). They are above the seven other courts.

The bottom seven courts are arranged similar to the menorah, with each court working in conjunction with the court on its right or left. The Court of Councils of the Fathers feeds to the highest three courts. This has been drawn in on the next page for clarity. The mobile court is separate from these ten.

Heaven's Court System

