Ketubah & the Marriage

A new level of relationship

The Journey

- We have been on a journey of intimacy with God where He has taken us through understanding and experiencing Him in relationship.
- Until now our experience has been based on Him as Father and creator, and as joint heir and brother of Jesus.
- Each of these relationships has their own characteristics and purpose in helping us to understand different aspects of Him, but also reveals our purpose in Him.

God as Father

- We have explored this in depth and it is the first and most basic of our relationships with Him.
- He made us, he thought of us and created us in eternity.
- We are His children and He is our father. That relationship allows us to be a child, climb on His lap, be loved and sheltered by Him.

God as Father

- It says we are part of the family
- Protected and dearly loved.
- He lets us know He is in charge and He will take care of us.
- The responsibility is all His.

Brother and Joint Heir

- This is the second relationship we have with God
- We know that we have been adopted as Sons and heirs of the promise and have a Brother who died for us and who welcomes us as siblings.
- It is where we begin to understand we have a role to play.
- To be like our brother. To do the things he does and more. He is our example and our friend.

Brother and Joint Heir

- In this relationship we are to inherit the kingdom and begin to understand ourselves as Sons and Kings.
- This relationship shows us we have a function and a destiny and is where we learn that we are His hands and feet.
- It begins to show us the pathway of responsibility.
- We must learn to do things ourselves, use the authority He gives us (with His guidance)

Spouse and partner?

- The third relationship is the one He is calling us to next and it is a new level of relationship with His church.
- For years we have heard the church called the Bride and yet we have not understood fully what the implications of that are.
- The Bride becomes the wife/spouse at some point and the wedding makes way for married life.
- That is what we are being called to next. What are the implications of such a

Spouse and partner?

- Firstly, it is an adult relationship.
- It is no longer being treated as, or acting like a child.
- It requires us to take a new position of responsibility in a relationship that has expectations on both sides.
- As sons or brothers we had His name as children. After a marriage we have His name as spouse.

Spouse and partner?

- We are to inherit as children or sons. We get our name on the chequebook when we get married!
- Access to all the resources of our partnership
- This new level brings a serious responsibility and trust.
- It is the final and most intimate relationship level with God.
- True marriage creates partners (and equals?!)
- It is also designed for procreation!

Our new covenant

- Marriage is a covenant
- What I am I give to you
- What You are You give to me
- We make vows and promises
- to love each other, put the other first, forsake all others, cherish, honour, obey, etc
- If we give Him all that we are, will He not do the same?

Freedom Church = Mrs Yahweh

- What happens when we get married?
- Our status changes.
- Our rights change.
- Our name changes.
- Our responsibilities change
- Our expectations of each other change
- I am no longer independent but interdependent, we are one not two.

Freedom Church = Mrs Yahweh

- So, what does Freedom church look like when it is “Mrs God”?
- No one knows for sure
- Based on earthly changes after marriage, we will have a different role and authority.
- But also greater responsibility.
- A duty to reproduce?

Freedom Church = Mrs Yahweh

- It is a whole new level of intimacy, relationship and government that will have consequences.
- Our words may have greater effect.
- Our law making will have greater weight.
- Our mistakes may have greater consequences.
- The crucial point is that the level of relationship determines the level of government.

What does that mean for me?

- Firstly be clear it is Freedom Church as a body that is being called to this.
- To function in this role we need government to play its part
- We will need to function together.
- This is why He has been showing us how everything is interdependent, not independent.

What does that mean for me?

- We as 12, 7 and 3 are the parts of the governmental bride of Freedom church and must accept we need to fulfil our function in relationship with each other, so that we can operate as a whole person in the relationship with God.
- Every member of the church can find a place and role to play

What does that mean for me?

- If you're not in government does that mean you are off the hook?
- No, this also relates to us personally
- If we fulfil our purpose and destiny we will be operating our little part of the bigger body
- So we must also look at our Ketubah and destiny.

What does that mean for me?

- Every cell in the body has a function, not just organs, limbs or bones.
- When God marries us as a body He gets every part, every member of that body - down to the last cell.
- We get all of Him in return!

The importance of the Ketubah

- We have a church Ketubah (marriage contract)
- The ketubah shows that marriage is more than a physical and spiritual union; it is a legal and moral commitment as well.
- The ketubah details the husband's principal obligations to his wife to provide her with food, clothing and affection, along with other contractual obligations.
- God has told us to write our own Ketubah. Set out our own expectations and desires.

The importance of the Ketubah

- He is giving us the opportunity to set out our hopes, dreams, expectations desires and wants in this new relationship
- In the process we will learn what we hold on to: Assumptions, Presumptions, Dreams & Desires, Idols?
- Can we lay them down and trust fully in Him as our Provider (Husband)
- So that He can trust fully in us to be His loyal partner/ wife

The Date is Set!

- December 31st 2016 – You are invited
- It is the end of the old era and the beginning of a new life together
- We are all here for a such a time as this.
- It is unknown territory. There is no map.
- That's where forerunners and pioneers go
- Exciting or terrifying?
- Things will never be the same after this!
