

Vision-Destiny 2018 – 05

Session 05

- Share revelation from 2017
- What has God said and what has God revealed? – Conversations and Visionary encounters relevant for 2018
- What is the application for me the church here and for the wider church?

- To live loved is to rediscover my true identity as a son in relationship with a loving heavenly Father.
- Agape love leads me to rest and remember his image and likeness redeemed in us.
- To love living is to express the joy of life from the place of rest to engage creation in sonship
- To live loving is to express the peace found in relationship as a son in and through and to everything to bring restoration.

Son it is time for the great lies of man-made religious doctrines to be exposed and the truth to be brought into the light.

Son as you stand here in my heart let the love that I have for everyone and everything that I have created flow through you.

- Son I issue you with this task expose the scandal of the old to reveal the wondrous truth of the new.
- Son be bold and courageous and let nothing intimidate you from the task I have given you

Our faith or choice does not make salvation true it just gives entrance into what is already true.

God has reconciled all to Himself He is not separated from us neither in life or death but we can refuse to acknowledge or experience the true reality of that relationship and continue to live following the DIY path.

God saved everyone from eternal death and has given everyone the gift of faith to be persuaded to change paths to change our minds = metanoia.

It is our free will to choose when we accept the free gift of grace through faith.

A vengeful angry God was invented by our own imagination prompted by the lies and deception of the enemy.

The whole system of sacrifice to appease the angry God to bring fertility crops and harvest was our invention.

We created the system that paints God as the angry archer waiting to lose the arrows of punishment.

- God has always been and always will be a loving Father wanting relationship with His children.

Son feel and know the depth of that love as it surrounds you and infuses you.
 Son let that love be the true motivation for all that you are think and do.
 Son totally rest in My love and trust in the power of love to reconcile and restore.

Rom 8:35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 37 But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Love is all around and has the power to overcome and triumph in every situation and circumstance in all ages at all times.

Son love has already won the victory over the last and greatest enemy that is death
 1 Cor 15

Son be persuaded by love's power and make it known to all that this is the true good news.

The gospel is the power of love to redeem reconcile and restore all things.

Exposed to the light of love

The DIY-SYSTEM requires retributive justice but God's justice is always restorative

There is a way that seems right to man but it's ways are the ways of death.

It was man that required appeasement it was man that required sacrifices.

Religion reflects the whispers and lies of the enemy that distorted the love of God and paints the picture of the angry God that needs child sacrifice to appease His wrath.

- God's deepest desire to embrace mankind His children in love means He will go to whatever depths to meet us in engagement.
- God did not want sacrifices it was our need for retributive justice and not restorative justice.

Jer 7:22 For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices. 23 But this is what I commanded them, saying, 'Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you will be My people;

Jer 7:23 and you will walk in all the way which I command you, that it may be well with you.' 24 Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward.

- God is not angry in the Old Testament and loving in the NT
- God has never been angry at people but with the systems behind people e.g. not flesh and blood but the spiritual powers behind them.
- God is love so everything He does is a reflection of that love even His being a consuming fire is an expression of love.

Psa 30:5 His anger lasts a moment but His mercy lasts forever

In the garden when Adam chose to believe the whispers and lies, God was not angry but sad to lose relationship.

The sin of following the wrong path had its own consequences, God just pointed them out but also pointed out the hope of redemption.

Son the light of love is the light of truth that reveals Me as I truly am.

Let My light shine and all the darkness will be exposed and brought into lights true perspective.

Son there is nothing that can separate from the love of God even your wrong choices but love as expressed in the fires of purification and refining is men's choice not God's.

The flood and the seed wars that ensued from the enemy's schemes were an expression of love to keep the seed safe and hope alive.

Even in the fire was purification and not punishment and there had always been salvation through the ark

It was man who choose to follow the path that leads to death it was not My desire that man would die.

Death had been conquered and defeated by resurrection life and had even then no sting eternally.

Love has won and love will always win but man chooses which way that they will encounter love.

- Son no one can escape from Me as I am in all and all are in Me

Acts 17:21 in Me you live move and exist.

- Son now you are able to engage multidimensionally your capacity has increased but don't be caught up in needing to know everything cognitively.
- Son trust and rest and flow, do not try to know and what you need to know will be unveiled.
- Son I do not want you to focus on what you can do, so make your primary focus be getting to know the true reality of who I am.

Son let's walk together.

In the garden of the Father the fragrances of all the living things overwhelms me but three distinct but sympathetic emotions come to the fore love, joy and peace.

I feel intoxicated by the raw intensity of the practical way that these three fruits lay the foundation for all life.

- Love is righteousness displayed, joy is hope exemplified and peace is rest personified.
- These form the basis and foundation for all expressions of kingdom and government and are the fragrances of all legislation.
- Love joy and peace are the DNA strands of all creation and fully represent the Father Son and Spirit.

Son this is not only for the garden but is how I am is in and through and over all things in the creation order.

- When the world awakens to this reality and is free from the deception of the matrix blindness then creation itself will begin to be reanimated to resurrection life.

Son you must cover resurrection from a new perspective to uncover the fullness of this truth that will awaken My children to their true freedom.

Resurrection awakening in relation to new birth and inclusion being made alive from spiritual death, My Spirit being poured out on all flesh are all factors.

The resurrection and the judgment have taken place, the old order ended and a new order began but this true reality has been obscured by layers and layers of futurist doctrine that has kept My children locked in a future hope of what is already realised.

Remove this veil from the eyes of My people so they can fully experience the reality of what is full inheritance now.

- When you cross over into the new it is all new. There will be a transfiguration that takes place even with your physical bodies to prepare them for the ages to come.
- As a man thinks so is he by the renewal of the mind to the capacity of the mind of Christ.

The prophetic timetable must be reconfigured to reflect the truth that you now know regarding the meaning of the new from an eschatological perspective.

The hope of the parousia must be become a present expectation not a futuristic dream.

The restoration of all things becomes an ongoing focus for the embassies of heaven to colonise the earth

The Joshua Generation are the key as forerunners to bring this freedom so it becomes unveiled to those of this generation who will resonate as the deconstruction of 1600 years of false religious doctrine is exposed and the slippery slope becomes a full roller coaster ride to freedom.

Son you have legislated for new beginnings now legislate for the deconstruction that will be a vital component to the unveiling of true kingdom reality.

The law of deconstruction

The context: the renewal of the mind Rom 12 the removal of the old
The pillars challenged and shaken by the love bombs of truth.

Powers

- You are authorised to accelerate the process of cognitive dissonance
- You are authorised to release traumatic encounters that will fracture the illusions
- You are authorised to expose the old to new levels of revelation
- You are authorised to release the messenger angels to effect mind quakes
- You are authorised to increase the intensity and pressure for transformation through facilitating deeper dimensional encounters

Jurisdiction

- You are authorised to call for the radicalisation of the Joshua generation by deconstruction.

Results

- You can expect greater opposition and a falling away of those who are not bold and courageous.
- You can expect an accelerated transition for those who embrace deconstruction.
- You will need trauma centres places of rehabilitation for the deconstructed and deprogrammed.

There is no "dying to self"?

- Taking up the cross, dying to self, was before the death, burial and resurrection of Christ
- I died with and was raised with him.
- Even when Paul said he "died" daily, he was just figuratively talking about persecution.
- We don't need to die to self, we need to awaken to righteousness and love.

Transformation is the fruit, not the goal.

The goal is knowing God. That was always the goal.

Knowing God will produce the fruit of transformation over time... but if my goal is transformation, then I will end up just trying to figure out how to be a better person with God's "help".

Change is good, and we can go for it, but ultimately the WAY is in knowing God.
Transformation is the fruit not the root.

Love is the root.

Son the key is sonship and the full understanding of the Father's heart of love.

Religious duty abounds from sincere hearts but freedom is limited and governmental authority is restricted to prayer.

Son be bold and do not be afraid just be yourself and trust Me.

Let Me flow the living waters from heaven to open the doors

- Son call the benches of three to be bold and go beyond their limitations and dream big to see the world ablaze with the fire and passion of sonship.
 - Son call forth the Joshua Generation within the various church movements
 - Son call for the door to be open the veils removed and Jordan's waters to be held back.
 - Call for the wilderness bondage to be exposed brought into the light and challenged.
 - Foundational government of benches of three will always be the key to expanding the boundaries.
 - The call for sons to arise must go forth.
 - Send the angelic messengers release a fresh sound for the mountain thrones to be invested with lords.
- I call for the sons of God to arise and come forth to take their places within the government of heaven and earth.
 - I call for the laying down of the old structures to embrace the new.
 - I call for the foundations of empowerment to replace the mediatorial coverings of men
 - I call for the desire for more than this to rise up within the hearts and minds and a flow of heavenly manifestations to come forth
 - I call for the removal of the veils of darkness from the sons of God
 - I call for the forerunners to arise and cast off their shackles and step out into the light
 - I call for the shrouded mists covering the hearts and minds to be dissipated
 - I call for a revolution and new fire to be released and all strange fire to be extinguished.
 - Let the cry of hearts come forth there must be more than this
 - I call for the barriers and walls of resistance to come down
 - I call for an open heaven over all gatherings and a flow of heavenly manifestations to come forth

Son it is time to refocus your efforts to the blueprint of your design your destiny in sonship.

Ready in the truth of who you are in Me the I am circle of relationship.

Son let Me draw you deeper into the true reality of who you really are as a son.

Son there are more limitations and restrictions to be removed from your being.

Son you must see reality if you are to choose it.

Your vision must not be restricted by the mist fog and smog of the world systems you live amongst.

Son rise up and see from where you are positioned and be seated in the rest that releases your authority.

Son now draw from the reality of what was before there was to administrate in what is to create what will be and the end and the beginning will truly be in union. Son if you truly can begin to rest in love's reality then nothing is impossible and everything is a potential possibility.

Love is the foundation and the essence of all choices and all possibilities and therefore all realities must be established on the relational precepts statutes and laws of love.

- Relational Love is who I am and you have been included in Me from before there was so you can also be the fullest expression of true love and all reality must be love's essence and expression.
- Son how I long for My true identity as love be known by all of My children so all will know who they are so their true origin and identity can be fully expressed.

Son the restoration of all things is the true focus of your destiny and is now being unveiled before your eyes that now have the capacity and ability to see

All limitations and restrictions will be removed so you can see with an unveiled mind what is the height and depth and breadth of love that will cross all the dimensional boundaries of the ages; time and space being no obstacle to restoration and reconciliation.

Son live loved in the blissful knowledge of I am so you can truly love living in the fullness of joyous knowledge and live loving expressing the overwhelming peace that flows from our mystic union.

Son I untether you from the chains of the earthbound limitations that have blinded you from the light of love's true potential and power.

- Son you must free My people from the lies that have trapped them in the matrix of religious impotence and shine the light of truth to expose the false orthodoxy of the control systems of the religious and political leaven that have infiltrated and infected My people.

Son use all that you have legislatively at your disposal to expose the scandal and set My people free from the Egypt they are living in whilst wandering around the wilderness.

Son bring the full weight of the laws you have to their fullest extent against the slavery to the religious systems and against theological doctrinal unbelief that supports it.

Act 3 Fully restored sons lead to the restoration of all things as per God's original intention and design.

Fully restored relationships, family, planet, universe, dimensions, reality, dichotomies, God to man, man to man, man to creation, heaven and earth, was is and is to come. spirit soul body, angelic realm, everything that is separated, paradise restored and beyond.

Son you have been called and chosen and your destiny unveiled as a chancellor of heaven and a legislator on earth.

Son you are an ambassador for the Joshua Generation it is time to make representation for mercy and grace as the time and season is about to shift focus for the forerunners.

Justice according to the judgement of the 70 will continue but grace must begin to be called forth.

Grace, manifold grace and grace upon grace are the seasons to come forth beyond the capacity of your present experience to explain or understand.

Beyond normalcy will stretch your imagination so you must now start to engage beyond beyond not just in the reality of your mind's consciousness and in the nonlinearity of your present but in your physical nonlinear experience.

- Son get ready and be prepared for suddenlies to begin to appear as your normality.
- The physical laws are about to be rewritten from beyond beyond and you have been chosen with other forerunners to be part of this process.
- Son it is time to arise and shine like stars as the mountain of the house of the Lord rises from the wilderness prison to the place of prominence governmentally.

Son go back to your journals and engage grace because now you are ready to see what was impossible back in 2010.

The limitations and restrictions that have been and will continue to be removed will make it possible to engage grace, manifold grace and grace upon grace as a reality first within your consciousness and then within your created reality.

Son you are authorised to unveil and expose the bible for what it is and what it isn't to bring the next generation into the freedom that My written word was intended to bring.

Son the major views of truth will need to be redefined as a living word not futurist historicist or preterist in fact not a fixed system of belief but a relationship narrative expressed through the mystery of the mystic union where deep meets deep.

- Son you are authorised to expose theology as the folly of the ages to unveil true reality of the living active powerful word.
- Son the bible as you know it is neither inerrant nor infallible and sola scriptura is a mythical construct of religion that has removed relationship to replace it with dogma, doctrines and creeds.

Son relationship is all in all and the process of deifying a book has to be exposed or else My people will never be able to go beyond the introduction into the marriage relationship I always intended.

The book is but a doorway into a new reality with Me open the possibilities that exist through the event horizon of the worm hole or as it had been written through the looking glass to the reality.

Son present realities will fade away into the past when you start living from beyond beyond.

II Corinthians 10:5 Every lofty idea and argument positioned against the knowledge of God is cast down and exposed to be a mere invention of our own imagination. We arrest every thought that could possibly trigger an opposing threat to our redeemed identity and innocence at spear point! The calibre of our weapon is empowered by the revelation of the ultimate consequence of the obedience of Christ. (The obedience of Christ dwarfs the effect of the disobedience of Adam into insignificance! See Romans 5:12-21.)

Son it is time to be bold and hold nothing back in speaking the truth in love.

Do not be afraid to ask questions that bring things into the light.

Son expose everything that is not aligned with your blueprint or with the reality of love.

Son be open and honest in all your dealings with everyone you do not have to please everyone but you do need to be truthful.

Son I am calling you to prepare for the season of grace by ensuring that all aspects of justice are fully realised in you as forerunners.

Get the legislation in place that administrates justice continually as the foundation for grace to be released and established.

- Son the lies of the enemy that are believed bring guilt shame and condemnation and create inadequacy and fear.
- The truth of identity and destiny bring a confidence realising that we are not the source of our own authority.
- Son expose the lies so that the truth will bring a true freedom that brings the arc of position and identity to create true heavenly authority.

- Son My justice is to invest those who accept the guilty verdict of the judgement with heavenly and earthly governmental positions of authority.
- The old had been judged and found wanting when weighed in the balance that reflects heaven's blueprint for governmental foundations.

- The new must rise up and takes its place but it must continually remain a flexible wineskin able to receive the flow of new wine revelation.
- Son guard against becoming rigid and inflexible by being continually open to My voice and truth.

Son evil is nothing more than following your own path it is the labour of DIY self-effort.

- Son the hardships of following your own path is evident to see in the world.
- Son don't focus on the behaviours but on the futility of walking alone.
- Evil is neither a person nor a thing it is a life of self poneros.
- Son man desires to personify evil as the devil or satan but he was just the first to choose to walk his own path.
- Son the sin is not a set of wrong behaviours but a mind-set that has lost the reality of the true identity and walks the DIY path of self-fulfilment.

Son I have called you to reveal this truth to My children to unveil the total futility of the pathway that they are walking on.

The pathways and the trees are but the way the truth and the life from 2 perspectives.

The perspective of man brings death and poneros and the perspective of God brings life in abundance.

The fruit from the DIY tree is a poison that has passed through the seed to all mankind but the fruit of the tree of life is righteousness peace and joy in overflowing abundance as the fruit of the Spirit.

The fruit of Christ the tree of life is your true nature and character in sonship take eat freely of the abundance of its supply.

- Son lead my children back to the source who is Me so that they can taste and see that I am is good and pleasant full of grace and truth abounding in mercy.
- The tree of life is in you just as you are in Me take eat and experience the lavishness of grace and love.
- The tree of life is a representation of the inexhaustible supply that is Christ who is always good and always in season and who is for the healing of the nations.
- Eat freely of the fruit and see the restoration of all things bringing independent nations back to relational families.

Son "I am" is a statement of truth but the reflection "am I" can be a question that reflects loss of identity or a statement that reflects true destiny and purpose of the mirror image of sonship.

Who am I is the cry of the lost soul but here am I is the cry of a son in full mystic union about his Father's business as a full coheir.

Son you are free. The false religious perspectives of Me designed by the DIY tree pathway the false frameworks of doctrines that imprison your consciousness have been exposed.

The images that have kept you yoked to the law of DIY have now been revealed as idols that you were appeasing through fear.

Son cast off the restraints and live free from images and idols that represented the distant deity and not the circle of love and the dance of joyful relationship.
Son revel in the freedom of love expressed in the true image and identity of your design as you see Me face to face.

Son I am so you can truly be fully included in Me not separated in any way but the perfect reflection in the mirror of My face where you are free to say here AM I.
Son set your focus on the freedom that beckons My children to come out of the bondage to the Moses mediators of the wilderness to embrace the promised land of their full inheritance as sons not slaves to the religious systems and coverings that have obscured who I am and therefore who you can be.

- Son I long for My children to be free from the bondage of slavery and service produced by the systems of DIY religion.
- Blow the silver trumpet herald the call to freedom that waits My children beyond the wilderness beyond the veil untethered from their earthbound limitations and restrictions.
