

Vision-Destiny 2018 – 10

Session 10

Share revelation from 2017

What has God said and what has God revealed? – Conversations and Visionary encounters relevant for 2018

What is the application for me the church here and for the wider church?

➔ Why are you here?

This is the question that you must be able to answer with clarity and certainty both individually and corporately.

Keep your eyes looking ahead and prepare for all that is coming from your places in the heavenly realms.

As sons I have given you responsibility and authority for the mandates.

The two fiery scrolls will form the arc of agreement that will release the governmental authority for everything else and that authority will open the portals of heaven so that heaven will manifest on earth.

The focus on the two fiery scrolls will bring the threes of authority and the fours of the everlasting doors.

- 2018 will be the beginning of the transition from the season of justice to grace.
- You will need to learn to administrate the manifold grace of God so it becomes greater grace and grace upon grace in preparation for the season of mercy that you are looking for.
- This is a great responsibility that I am giving to the forerunners of the Joshua generation.
- Prepare your hearts and minds by embracing the new and letting go of the old so that you will be able to know Me at ever increasing depths of intimacy.
- Deep is calling to deep I am is inviting you to come closer so you can arise as sons of God and take your places in the councils and assemblies of heaven.

Son you have been called and chosen to represent Me as My son.

- I desire to reveal Myself to you at a new level of personal intimacy but it will require sacrifice on your part because it will change you and the desires of your heart.
- You must weigh up the cost carefully before you say yes.

- Your passion and desire for certain things will wain and you will be drawn to new things which will replace the old.
- The old things are not wrong things so you must choose to allow Me to change your heart and realign your desires.
- The you that you know will not be the same so you must be prepared for a radical shift of focus and be willing to embrace the changes and not fight them.
- The shift from justice to grace for the Joshua Generation will be a subtle change but a discernible change that will increase through desire.

The judgment on the old enabled justice to be released and justice has the authority to free people from their bondage to the old.

Justice will continue as the judgment is still in place but it will become less of the focus and the grace to arise into positions of sonship will begin to increase.

There are still some who will cross over but the intensity of that flow will decrease because the focus will be on those who have crossed but not moved from friends to lords.

- The weight and emphasis on justice will decrease but I will compensate for lack of numbers with an increase in the force of grace.
- Less people with greater power and authority that comes by an increase in My enabling power.

Your focus will change as the season transitions to the harvest.

If the Moses generation chooses to remain in the wilderness their places will be taken by the next generation who will be born in the promise land of the new.

This will entail ten of the Joshua generation to a hundred of the harvest or ten to a thousand but this could be even one to a thousand in some cases.

Ten to hundred will be enough in the season of the first fruits of the harvest but when the harvest increases in momentum the first fruits will need accelerated maturity to mentor the harvest.

- ➔ There will need to be greater grace to produce mature sons.
- ➔ The process of transformation will be facilitated by periods of intense fire and the Seraphim will be active in the refining and purification.

The purification of flesh will be the focus as there won't need to be the dealing with the old religious mind-sets that have so restricted the Joshua Generation.

Therefore it is vital that the forerunners develop the new mind-sets and new lifestyles quickly in this transition season as it won't be a long transition.

The old ways are ceasing to work and this is becoming more apparent for the forerunners so don't try to cling onto the old and familiar.

Son a new season is dawning where the grace will be available to connect to people's hearts and reveal the truth of their salvation. There will be an increase in supernatural activity if you focus your attention on the harvest and laser guide the smart bombs of love.

Call for the Pauls and direct the focused light upon them for burning bush and Damascus road encounters. Use the sound and light to engage with hearts and minds.

The grace for healing will increase when directed towards those who you carry in your hearts. My compassion will move you with grace if you are willing to feel My love for those lost on their own paths.

Son legislate for the changes in season, culture, attitudes and heart needed to accelerate the transition.

You have a law of grace but you will need to use it consistently and specifically towards the people groups that you have mandates to engage.

A law of greater grace is available to you if you have the desire.

- Minister and administrate through the order of Melchizedek; stand in the power of My name and bring My kingdom governmental order from heaven into the earth first through each of your lives and then through the everlasting doors over your blueprint.

Engage as priest and rule as a king, carry my word as an oracle and facilitate as a legislator so you can be ambassadors and establish the Embassies of heaven.

- The Joshua Generation are to function as a royal priesthood after the order of Melchizedek to be ready to mentor the first fruits of the harvest that are going to be the harvesters.
- Greater grace will be upon the Joshua Generation so that grace upon grace will be upon the harvesters when the season of mercy dawns.

The biggest hindrance to My heart's desires being fulfilled are the mind-sets of My people filled with unbelief and doubt because they are blinded by the darkness of hopes deferred.

So many of My people are living in spiritual depression suppressed and oppressed in the deception of disappointment.

Unfulfilled dreams visions promises, false and real expectations brings spiritual incapacity inoculated against future hope by past disappointments.

Most are unwilling to face the truth of their own hearts because they live in the religious bondage and fear of GOD trapped in an unreality that keeps them debilitated.

This must be dealt with or they will continue to be visionless fearful to go forward because they are afraid to face the past and be honest about their disillusionment with GOD.

I am going to create a culture of honour where there will be an amnesty and all those true suppressed and hidden emotions, thoughts and disappointments can be aired.

All the pastors teachers prophets and apostles the theologians the translators of the old order can be forgiven and released and the old can be left behind so the new can be embraced.

- Son great shifts and shakings will start to take place in the transition between the old season and the new.
- You will not be shaken if you are standing on the true foundation of your original design.
- Trust in the world's or the religious systems will not keep you standing firm when the shakings begin.
- Son these shakings are the moving of My heart aligned to the groans of creation.
- Creation is quaking in response to the manifestation of the sons of God taking their places.

As My sons begin to know their true origin and identity creation begins to throw off its yoke to bondage.

Freedom for My children is freedom for creation as the heavy yoke and burden is thrown off in revolution.

- The freedom from the yoke of religious depression and suppression will begin to bring creation itself into liberty.
- The shifts will reflect the revelation of true sonship as the sons of God arise throwing off the tyranny of the old order and embracing the new order of freedom.
- Creation itself will flex as it begins to emerge out of darkness into the light of the rising of the sons of God.
- As the restrictions and limitations of the old ways of thinking are deconstructed the power of the consciousness of the renewed mind will be seen.
- There will be an unveiling of true power and authority that can only be expressed through sons who know and have the mind of Christ.
- Reality itself will shift once the religious veils have been removed from the minds of the sons of God.

There will be shakings, manoeuvrings and exposings within the hierarchies of the Moses generation that will cause another exodus out of the wilderness.

Son don't focus on the wilderness but on Egypt and the first fruits of the harvest those who will be seekers of truth.

- The rising of sons is the rising of the mountain of the house of the Lord to take their places seated in the heavenlies in identity, position and authority.
- The great commissioning is being prepared for the sons to take their heavenly governmental positions with new mantles scrolls weapons and discoveries.
- Son call forth the sons of God so that they rise up and take their places in the heavenly realms.
- Release new mantles and new scrolls of position and authority.
- Call forth destiny call forth the spirit to come into alignment with My heart once again to walk the ancient paths.

Son you have allowed Me to deal with the heart's motives, your souls core essence by surrender and your consciousness by the deconstruction of the pillars in your mind.

Now by continued desire allow Me to deal with the fractured relationship between the integrated spirit and soul and your body.

- The physical limitations that hold you back from truly walking in sonship on earth as it is in heaven can be overcome by the power of your consciousness illuminated by the creative light of truth.

Son come beyond beyond again and stand in the light and as you stand bathed in light let the word of truth resonate and reverberate around you and within you.

Son do you want to be transfigured?

Are you prepared to pay the cost of such change as a forerunner?

Are you willing to undergo the bodily transformation that compares with your souls realignment?

In communion with the frequency of My heart DNA you have been preparing your body for the changes that need to take place for sonship.

Son when you see Me you can become like Me but it is far from automatic. Cultivate the desire for physical change that you developed for the transformation of the soul and you can become like who you behold. Son unlock the ancient power of spirit soul body in perfect alignment and order.

What you have been doing in overshadowing your soul and body with your spirit is but a shadow of what is possible as it has only been a spiritual manifestation in preparation for the physical reality of a body living free from limitations and released by expanded consciousness.

- Son set your mind free from the limitations and restrictions of what you believe or don't believe so that all limitations can be removed.
- Unrestricted unlimited free to be restored to original intent.

Father take me beyond. I am willing for a heart transformation of love to realign my life with heaven.

I am willing to pay the cost for change and restoration of passion. Change my heart Father.

- Son are you really willing to let go of all that does not reflect Me?
- Are you willing to take your gaze off those things that keep you from being an earthly expression of your heavenly positions?
- Son you will need to engage the fire of My presence and allow it to do its work.

Relationship Transition Transformation Position

Each trans-dimensional position is where my sonship is connected to Metatron's cube and the sonship of the tree of life.

Our sonship is multidimensional and our positions within the creational order create the harmony that brings balance to sacred geometry.

We carry light sound fragrance mathematics within our being.

Son you are only connecting to a restricted number of positions there are more and whilst not unlimited in number they are more than you imagine or think.

Son it is My intention to restore all things within the fabric of space time dimensional creation.

Restoration includes all your dimensional positions and abilities within oneness and unison.

Everything is a pattern that represents the whole a fractal of the mind of God one within another within another but it also carries depths of layers within layers within layers.

Son deep calling to deep is not just an exploration of Me personally but of all that lives moves and has its being within Me.

Son explore the crystalline nature of creational order to discover transcendence and convergence.

Observations affect the reality that thought and intention hold together. As one pattern is transformed into another that is how I find pleasure in all things at all times within all space possibilities.

All My people are designed not just to multitask but to multi-being in multidimensional manifoldness.

Son the Joshua Generation has a mandate of sonship for the restoration of all things.

I am going to reveal the full understanding about what true restoration is and what the full multidimensional nature of all things is.

This will take you into the realm of beyond beyond where the hidden mysteries of the kingdom are being unlocked and unveiled as the keys of the kingdom are released by Metatron who holds the keys to the times and seasons of the seen and unseen realms.

When the 12 Houses are aligned Metatron will release the keys via the Chayoth the living creatures of heaven to those positioned in sonship to receive them. The positions of sonship need to be taken and my children need to be seated to receive these keys to administrate the ancient and hidden mysteries.

- Portals will be opened access will be given to those of My sons who know their identity and have taken their positions.
- Knowledge, wisdom and understanding are a heavenly bench of three to unveil deeper mysteries concerning the seasons of restoration that are about to be revealed.
- I am calling My children to embrace the transformation necessary for them to mature in sonship and arise.
- The Sons of God arising into their heavenly governmental positions is the trigger for the release of the mysteries of the restoration of all things to become the focus of My heart.

My heart will be revealed and My passion for a harvest of sons is integrally linked to the restoration will be understood.

- You are transitioning out of the seasons of judgment and justice into the seasons of greater grace and great mercy that will be needed for the harvests of restoration that are to come.
- Every revival and move of God will pale into insignificance compared to the manifestation of the sons of God on earth as they are positioned in heaven.

Son see through My eyes. Son what do you see?

I see paradise restored across all time and space dimensions.

I feel as I see the perfect harmony of oneness and the beauty of pure mathematical geometric perfection.

I sense the fragrance of a blended perfume containing the essence of everyone as living sacrifices.

I feel the wholeness of every created particle connected and yet distinct. I feel the interconnectedness of a hive of uniqueness transcendence and imminence of a creation restored

I see the kaleidoscope of multi-coloured multidimensional infinite constantly changing constants.

I see pure love and pure light in the creative expression of sonship revealing the heart of Father Son and Spirit through every relational connection and interaction.

I see the beauty of paradox the mystery of enigma through the eternal balance of relational now.

Son you are seeing I am, so be.

Son feel from within My heart the deepest desire and longing for the restoration within time and space for what is always here in my heart.

All the conversations converge into the focus that ensures nothing is lost and all is redeemed and true relationship is maintained.

Son I am is calling to the sons of men with the resonate frequency of destiny the return to My original intent and relational purpose.

The echo of eternity's song, the symphony of the ages, still reverberates throughout the creation seeking to find that which is lost within the discordant notes of man's efforts to produce a symphony of its own.

The sound that lingers seeking to inspire participation within the cosmic masterpiece as a restored son of God.

The books of the library of heaven are filled both with history and possibility and I have absorbed restored truth and perspective.

I continued and felt Wisdom imparted for future missions in the restoration process.

The desire and passion for restoration had increased and the limitations are falling away as the possibilities are becoming probabilities within my mind.

I sense the knowledge of the ancients and the abilities of old are being restored.

Son the new sound is being released, the bell is ringing for some, the silver trumpet is heralding, the drums are beating a new rhythm.

This sound is marking both the end of the old and the beginning of a new season.

For some the sound is a rallying cry, for some it is the last post.

The end of the old and the beginning of the new are both painful and joyful.

I am calling you to shift your focus away from the wilderness and its valley of decision to Egypt and its valley of decision which reaches beyond death to the grave.

Son you know that the end of season is for the Sons of Issachar to discern and know what to do and become the forerunners who make way for others to embrace the new season.

Son just because the forerunners enter a new season it does not mean that the old seasons have ended for everyone even though it feels like it.

I showed you the prophetic timetable for a reason to show you the depths and heights I will go to reach my children and bring them into the maturity of sonship.

I do not change and I do not stop offering the opportunities of the old seasons to those whose ears and eyes are not yet opened.

I am still calling for intimacy and revealing My father heart for sonship.

I am still calling for the removal of stumbling blocks and lawlessness and the judgment on My household continues.

- I am a loving Father who wants none of His children to be lost in their own fallen mind-sets and miss out on the fullness of their inheritance.
- I call My sons to follow me out of the safety of the boats of their lives onto the waters to go beyond what is safe into the unknown to adventures beyond their wildest imaginations.

I will still be calling My children to get in the boat and venture out from the comfort and security of the land of the old, routine, religious institutions.

Son the greatest adventures beyond are still ahead on your journey don't stop moving forward and going beyond.

The restoration of all things is the underlying motivation of My heart this desire underpins everything that flows from the now of the circle of relationship that is I am.

Son use the resonant frequency of bowls to engage the root of hidden buried issues and trauma to bring them to the surface.

Choose to forgive and release any memory, person, incident that is revealed. Then let the waves carry away the fear, anger, pain and disappointments and wash people clean and then begin to impart and instil fresh hope.

To live loved is to rediscover my true identity as a son in relationship with a loving heavenly Father.

Agape love leads me to rest and remember his image and likeness redeemed in us.

To love living is to express the joy of life from the place of rest to engage creation in sonship

To live loving is to express the peace found in relationship as a son in and through and to everything to bring restoration.

• Look into the deep pools of the eyes of the Prince of Peace
• Close your eyes and begin to think of Jesus and continue to look into those eyes
• Let Jesus take you beyond
