

I will share my 2018 journals that will include:

What God did and say in 2018

What does that mean for 2019?

What does God want to reveal and unveil to us 2019?

What does God want us to do and where does He want to take us in 2019?

Please don't believe anything I say just because I say it

If you resonate within anything I say in your spirit or if you object strongly to anything I share take it back to God and openly ask Him to give you direct revelation

I can only share information about my revelation that has come through my personal encounters and experience

Only by engaging God yourselves can you have revelation not information

We all need to know the truth

Love is my plumb line for truth

God said to me "if it is not unconditional love it is not Me

"If it is love it is Me and love must be unconditional and otherly, otherwise it is not love at all"

Don't tell people how lost they are. Show them how loved they are! - Francois Du Toit

Son, the fire stones are the stones of destiny where the fire of Our DNA is encoded within the stones. The stones were created to release the light of our character and nature as the precepts that were to be reflected out into all creation to enable all to be connected to the source.

The waves of light that revealed the essence of pure love could be absorbed by all spirit and form the particles of love's manifestation within creation as the building blocks of all things.

The light-bearer refused to reflect the light, choosing to create darkness by reflecting an absence of our presence.

All those who followed him became darkness and introduced darkness into creation

My sons are called to be sons of light to arise and shine to restore light to creation by absorbing Our image into themselves across all spectrums and all frequencies and releasing and radiating love's light.

As My sons embrace the light of each stone at each level deep will truly reveal the depths and manifoldness of who We really are and so you will be able to be a true reflection of fire's transcendence converging as immanence.

The willingness to embrace the consuming fire of Our love and be purified and refined is the precursor to engaging the stones and being able to receive the deep revelation of eternal sonship.

Created and creative light will form an interference pattern and cancel each other out leaving darkness.

By engaging the fire stones you are bathing in the creative revelation light that will activate the creative light hidden within the fabric of your being. That light will radiate from your innermost being, transforming created back to creative so that you can radiate the glory of sonship once again.

The created order had been separated from the creative realm and is longing to be reconnected and brought back into the harmony of the first estate from which it was removed by the choice of My son Adam to abandon the light of life and walk in darkness of self.

As My sons choose to walk in the creative light of their sonship creation will again respond to love's light.

Creation itself is waiting for you to arise and shine by discovering the true nature of your sonship deep within Us.

Son, true ascension is not entering through the veil into the heavenly realms but is entering into Us to ascend into the maturity of your sonship.

True ascension is becoming mature sons by embracing the 9 stones at the nine levels that will add the last three stones of sonship to reach and live from the eternal now.

There were always intended to be 12 stones that would take the thrones of sonship from heaven to the place high above all authority through the heaven of heavens to perfection to eternity.

This is where the speed of light is closest to the purity of eternity's perfection within the circle of love's dance.

Son, this is the highest estate within the created order of the creator that can be ascended to.

Son, the stones of destiny will reconnect your past, present and future destiny into wholeness and remove all separation from within your being and bring a clarity to your true identity and calling as My sons.

Heaven is the centre where your thrones of sonship are currently positioned but as My sons ascend, so will the thrones ascend to the highest place within the creative order
Ages to come as co-creators and ascended fathers

Process of maturity and ascension

Kingdom of Heaven – Kings with charge of the courts

Kingdom of God – Lords who govern the house

Kingdom of Earth – Servants, Stewards, Friends, walking in His ways

Eternity - Ascended Fathers

Perfection - Co-creators

Heaven of heavens - Co-heirs

Heaven - Sons with access to the assemblies and councils of heaven

Son, I am is all-consuming. There are no half measures about Us, Our love is all-consuming, Our passion is all-consuming.

I am is an all-consuming fire and that means the way to intimacy is always the way of fire.

The fiery sword, the fire on the mountain tops, the fiery altar, the river of fire, the fire stones, the judgment seat, the place of fire, are all expressions of My passion for you.

Son, My fire is never to be feared but embraced as a powerful reminder and expression of the commitment of My love and the revealing of just how far I am willing to go to secure relationship.

I am's fire of sacrificial offering was in place before the foundation of the earth and before the fall from the identity of sonship to ensure redeemed and restored face to face innocence.

Son, the so-called lake of fire was another expression of My love to end death and restore those who have fallen from their first estate.

Son, follow the river of fire - where does it go?

It flows into the place of fire.

Son My throne is an expression of My authority as a king and the river flows from My presence as an expression of both My love and My government

This also expresses My love to make the place where all can be restored redeemed and reconciled who do not come through the fire of the cross.

Only those of My children who refuse the invitation to come through Jesus the door choose to go there and they too can be saved by fire

All get that choice before they die physically no one will be able to have an excuse because I speak to the hearts of all My children in many ways to offer them the choice.

Son, as you know I am loves all our children with a consuming passionate fiery love that cannot be escaped and will never give up or fail.

The first fire stone of love is both a reminder of My very essence as well as My total commitment to My children's identity and destiny within I am.

The first level of the stones reveals the emotional truth of the fruit of knowing Us intimately

Each level takes that foundation and builds upon it until My nature is revealed. This enables the fullness of My desire for Our sons to be like I am.

Each level of experience and revelation builds upon love's essence to the full statute of the Son of God.

Love gives truth its voice. The conversation that truth inspires creates the atmosphere wherein growth is both spontaneous and inevitable.

The whole person is addressed in Christ who is the head of the body;

He is the conclusion of God's communication with mankind.

"Speaking the truth in love" is not only the preferred attitude in our every conversation, but the only option; where truth gives integrity to love, and love gives attraction to truth.

From Him flows the original composition and detail of our design like words entwined in poetry, they connect layer upon layer to complete the harmony, following the rhythm of His thoughts like footprints.

Meanwhile the body thrives and pulsates with the energy of love. Each individual expression finds its complete measure there. (The church is not a dismembered, dysfunctional body, but a fully functional, coordinated lover of people." — Rob Lacey)

Son, be an example of a son who has arisen and taken their place in heaven and on earth in intimacy of relationship and the responsibility of government.

Son I have hidden you under the covering hand of My love but now I am opening up My hand to let the light shine out from within Me

Son you have been willing to be low, gentle and humble in heart so now I can allow others to see what We have together

Son as an ambassador for the Joshua Generation take your place within the council of the 70 with the portfolio for the preparation for the harvest.

Son, take this simple robe that covers your glory with humility and be seated.

You must shift from the earthly to the heavenly over the next 2 years as you learn to function here.

The council sits in 2 days. Your spirit will be engaging but over the next 2 years your soul will become more actively participating and you will become more cognitively aware of the activities and functions of the council within the affairs of the circle of the spheres.

I call for the opening of hearts and minds to see blind self areas of independence where needs are being sought to be met outside of true love within I am.

I call for the light to shine into this darkness to reveal the hidden motives of the heart.

I call for the law of removal of religious restrictions to be enacted to lift the veils of blindness off the eyes of the Joshua Generation

I call for an open heaven environment where God's children can hear the cry from the Father's heart to unveil, reveal and release them into their full glorious identity and inheritance as mature sons of God, the Elohim

I call for the gathering angels to be released to remove all obstacles and stumbling blocks from those who willingly open their hearts and minds to the light and fire of God's eyes

I call for the sound of many waters to release the call to destiny to resonate within the hearts and minds of God's children

I call for the hearts of God's children to be turned towards their heavenly Father for restoration of relationship and responsibility.

I call for the love bombs of heaven to explode with revelation of the depth of the Father's love for His children over the Sons Arise and Joshua generation environments.

I call for the lightning bolts of heavenly revelation to penetrate the hearts and minds of those who need the destruction of fortresses, strongholds and protection mechanisms to reveal the hidden father wounds and scars so that they can be healed.

I call for the freedom portals to be opened and the sentinel angels to permit access to the legions of the angelic host who bear the gifts of destiny's call to sonship
I call for an increase in the levels of power and presence to be manifested glory during this season of new intensity.

I call for the suspension of all barriers of time and space for all to experience the atmosphere of all activations and encounters under an open heaven for all who are live streaming or watching the recorded sessions.

Son, love is not just the essence of who I am but is to be the essence of who you are.
If you really want the world to know Me they need to see love in action.

When My children truly know Me they will love one another and the world they are part of and responsible for.
Religion in all its forms cannot truly represent love because it is not relational and therefore cannot reveal My true nature to the world.

Love is not love if it is not otherly because love is primarily about giving not about receiving.
Love Me with all your being as you have been loved and then you will be able to love yourself and others but you can only love Me through relationship not concept.

You must know Me to love Me. Relationship cannot be theoretical it must be the real interaction that occurs between us.
I know you and I mean I know everything about you now and I love you as I love all My children.

Relationship was never meant to be one way. We are pure relationship in the dance of I am and We desire that all Our children experience I am in intimacy within us within you.
Son, that is why deep is calling to deep; it is the call to know love in its purest essence without agenda or need.

I am is calling like the sound of many waters to all, across all dimensions of time and space
Calling to all the broken hearts and parts to come back to the wholeness only found in the oneness of I am.

Psa 42:7 Deep calls to deep at the sound of Your waterfalls;
The waterfall has many purposes but mostly it is to express love in such a way that it draws My children back to My heart as Father.
I am is calling you to come deeper, My children, into the depths of My loving heart.

Come back to the beginning in face to face innocence and see yourself the way I am sees you and you will truly know yourself.

Son, feel the rhythm of the beating of My heart.
Son, rest here with Me dwell here make this your abode.

I am that I am is all you need.
Release sons to arise from within all the places you are seeking to help My children engage.
Consciously flow from this place of rest, from the core of My heart and Mind, from within My name, from the fire of My altar.

Son, be consciously seated at rest while ruling and heaven will flow to release the deeper mysteries of sonship.
All My children are sons of man... but not the first man, Adam, but the last man, Jesus, but also sons of God, co-heirs and co-creators.

My sons are to be the full representation of My image and My government seated in the heavens and walking on the earth.
Son, do you feel it?
Do you sense it?
Do you hear it?
Can you see it?

The dawning of a new day, the beginning of a new season, a new vista with a new horizon.
Can you not hear? Can you not see?
Son, feel the wind shift, feel its intensity increase.

I call My sons to arise take their places so you can see, hear, perceive and know that the ordinances of heaven have been decreed and the legions of heaven are being prepared to engage the atmosphere of the earth.

This will only be in cooperation with those who have established a beachhead of heaven on the earth with heaven's blueprints and heaven's government.

Son, a change is coming; you can be part of it, miss it or even resist it but you can't stop it.
The hunter gatherer angels are going to be released to bring in the first fruits of the harvest to those storehouses that are prepared where the atmosphere is cleansed and its government is in place.

Son, look into My eyes; look into the radiance of My face shining with your image and glorious representation of sonship.
Son. see yourself as I see you, as you were always intended to be.
Son, your origin and design are only to be found in the mirror of My face; you can see them no where else.

Son I make no seconds, no rejects, no mistakes, only that which is perfect. So see yourself as a glorious son, see your restored image.
Do not be conformed to any previous thoughts you had about yourself but be transformed by the renewing of your mind through seeing this restored image in Me.

Son, love is the answer to your cry. It is time to speak the truth in love to bring the relationship issues into the light.

Be honest, be vulnerable, be open and be real so everyone can own their part in the problem. Love and forgiveness will bring the culture of honour that you seek.

Son, call it forth, legislate for it and it will come forth.
