

I will share my 2018 journals that will include:

What God did and say in 2018?

What does that mean for 2019?

What does God want to reveal and unveil to us 2019?

What does God want us to do and where does He want to take us in 2019?

Please don't believe anything I say just because I say it

If you resonate with anything I say in your spirit or if you object strongly to anything I share take it back to God and openly ask Him to give you direct revelation

I can only share information about my revelation that has come through my personal encounters and experience

Only by engaging God yourselves can you have revelation not information

We all need to know the truth

Love is my plumb line for truth

God said to me "if it is not unconditional love it is not Me

"If it is love it is Me and love must be unconditional and otherly, otherwise it is not love at all"

Don't tell people how lost they are

Show them how loved they are!

Son, rest in Me; let everything flow from the core of My being.

Son, you can go from linearity to nonlinearity not only in your spirit but with your mind and body also.

Fragmentation is the enemy's counterfeit of living a multidimensional existence.

Son, focus on My heart, the place where deep calls to deep where you are truly joined to Me.

Son, let who I am shape who you are.

Let My thoughts about you here be like the potter whose hands are constantly shaping and reshaping the clay of your being.

Where your scroll is continually bring rewritten, where your course is continually being replotted to ensure you are conformed to the image of sonship.

Son, how vast are My thoughts about you! Let them mould you and shape you just as I formed Adam here like clay and I breathed into Him My word, let Me breathe into you My living words, My breath.

Son, you have the words of life within you when you draw breath here; now breathe out as you create reality, as the 4 faces of My government in the what is of My name.

Son, be the man that I am is calling you to be, at rest in My love.

Living loved, loving living, living loving in a restored walking relationship of coheirship as My son.

Son bring together relationally what was was in union with what is and live and love consciously from both dimensions simultaneously to create the physical what will be as a history maker.

Son and heir, miracle worker, soul lover, Eden dweller, creation lover, restorer, repairer, reconciler, chancellor, ambassador, councillor, manifested son, coheir, co-creator, foundation stone, boundary stone, circle legislator, founding father, ambassador to races.

Son, you are My beloved in whom My soul delights.

Live from delight to live in delight as My desires become your desire

Living from the delight of the Father's heart and living in the authority of His holy name YHVH to create heaven on earth.

Son, I have pruned people - even nations - from the world by removing them from government as I did with Egypt, Babylon, Greece and Israel.

Like a branch from the vine but just as with Israel everyone can be re-grafted into the one true vine, the tree of life, My Son.

Son, I am a gardener at heart; I love to see things produce fruit and reproduce to multiply.

I created things with the ability to grow, increase and multiply through seedtime and harvest.

All of My children have built within them the ability to grow and mature and increase in capacity just as I am.

We are, but in the dimension of time everything is designed to expand towards our infinite eternal now.

Just as Jesus, the Son of Man, grew in stature with God and man, to be the Son of God who He always was. He was, is and always will be as we were, we are and we always will be.

Son, as My children are made in My image they are created with the ability and desire to be in the what was was and the what is to establish what will be.

This is their eternal destiny as coheirs and co-creators to mature to be ascended fathers who have fully embraced their identity, position and authority in love.

Son, love is the only basis for all My precepts, statutes, laws and ordinances and is Our only motivating energy, that which empowers all judgment, justice, grace, mercy, righteousness and faith.

Love is who we are, I am that I am is love.

Son, apocatastasis and perichoresis are both to be universally accepted core values of love in both relationship and government.

Son, feel My heart for all of our children.

Feel the intensity of My desire and love.

Feel how it burns with the passion and desire that all would come to the relationship that is both face to face and redeemed in innocence.

This is constant and never changes with the behaviour of My children as nothing can change who I am: love.

Son, love cannot fail as I am constantly at work to ensure the good pleasure of My will is accomplished.

I know what you are thinking how does free will equate with My will?

Free will is not an illusion but My will never changes and is always at work to bring good out of free will to bring alignment and agreement.

I will never cease as My love will never cease to be at work in all things. All will come to the knowledge of the truth as My love continues to be at work in them.

Son, the truth will make a way for the abundant life which is My desire for all My sheep from all the folds.

Son, I have called you to other folds to make known as an ambassador of love's power, to redeem, reconcile and restore all things in all time and space dimensions.

Son, My love transcends all barriers within the now of My heart's desire for face to face relationship with all of My creation.

Son, free will cannot stop or change My love that will not fail and cannot be changed as I am the same yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Son, listen carefully not with your ears but your heart feel what I am as love's desire.

I can never not be who I am therefore love wins, love overcomes and love can never fail.

Son, call to the next generation, issue the edict, release the sound of heaven's legions.

Son, send out the blue light once again to the targets of My desire within counterfeit systems of the world.

I call for Damascus road encounters within the deceptions of the enemy's camps.

I call for the light to shine, to penetrate the veils of darkness and deception that are keeping people from the truth.

I call for the light of truth to explode from the inside out to reveal the light at work within

I call for heaven's lightning bolts to be released to the legions of angelic messengers

I call for love bombs from the weapons house to be armed and targeted and guided by the cries of the saints for salvation

I call for the targeting of new age gurus with truth, light and love to expose the religious lies used to keep them from the truth

I call for the targeting of cult leaders within sects that are deceived by religious legalism and programming

Here am I, send me, Lord

I took My mandate to the weapons house to take the spears of truth and from Wisdom's heights I accessed the fiery door to the trophy room.

I engage the fire of God's consuming love to preach the good news of truth using the spear of destiny to penetrate the deception of DIY self-righteousness, ideals and values
Jesus is the light! Jesus is the light! Each proclamation like the thrust of the spear unveiling true destiny

Jesus is the way, truth and life! Another powerful thrust of the sword to penetrate the hardest hearts
Jesus is the only name by which all men will be saved! Another thrust of truth's light

Jesus is the only way to the Father source
At the name of Jesus every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus is Lord
Jesus is the only door

Jesus is the resurrection and the life
Jesus is the true bread of life
Jesus is the light of the world
Jesus is the good shepherd
Jesus is the door of the sheep
Jesus is the true vine
Jesus is the Son of God

I assigned the cloud of witnesses who today have been freed to the cause, to free their earthly brothers and sisters from the deceptions
Ongoing mandate

Son, in eternity I am that I am; there is just us. You have been exploring the spirit realm of Spirit Love Light.
You have been experiencing your origin, the womb of your beginning, the vast sum of our thoughts and conversations.
Deeper and deeper, beyond beyond, there is no beginning and no end within us.

Maps of the spiritual realms are all inadequate but they have given me reference points to the pathways I had discovered, walked on and were now part of me.
I can now navigate those paths by thought and intention out of desire and leading.

Engaging the spiritual realms is a journey of discovering who God is and who we are as His sons and together as heirs and coheirs ruling in love.
Son, the goal is wholeness: restoration of all that has been lost, broken, fragmented, fractured and all that has been used to protect can be removed.

The coping mechanisms and defence mechanisms that have been employed by the subconscious mind can be safely removed in My presence.
In My presence there is no fear; in My presence there is fullness of joy and a peace beyond all earthly understanding.

Before we can separate and reintegrate soul and spirit we need to reintegrate the fragmented soul.

We need to see all walls, barriers and partitions come down, penetrated by the love of God that casts out all fear.

Jesus, who knows what it is like to be fully human as the son of man, fully identified with our brokenness when He cried "My God, why have you forsaken me?"

Son, the bridal chamber is an opportunity for people to experience a deeper dimension to My love. I will reveal the true nature of My love at a level that will be transformatory to their very identity as a son.

They will be joined to Me in a way that will enable us to become one spirit like in normal marriage there is a joining to become one flesh.

Son, you need to go beyond the limitations that others are trying to put on you and be the you I created you to be.

The restrictions that others impose will always be out of their own needs so only focus on what flows from Me.

I am is the only agenda you need to have so you can be at rest and peace.

Son, abundant life is available for all if they seek Me first but all death that was defeated at the cross needs to be eradicated from your lives.

Death and fear of death have been the enemies that have robbed all My children of the fullness of love, joy and peace that is the foundation of their inheritance as a son of God.

Creation itself is looking and longing for the restoration of life based in the love, joy and peace that can come from no other source than Me.

Son, I am relationship personified so only look to Me, not others, and encourage others to do the same. I am is all that My children need if they would just let go of their expectations of others and focus on Me as the Father of lights who has an abundance of all that is needed.

Son, it is time for My children to go to the next level in regards to sonship.

I am calling for a new level of intimacy that will go beyond the worldly mindsets held because of religious programming.

The religious virus of thinking that had infected My children needs to be eradicated by experiences of pure loving bliss.

Son what I have revealed to you I mandate you to reveal to others who will be hungry enough to be deconstructed.

Love encounters with the waterfall, connecting to the mind of Christ, non linearity, beyond beyond experiences that will shake the foundations of their religious mindsets.

Son, use the legislation you have and make any further legislation you need to set My children free from the limitations and restrictions keeping them from sonship.

The bondage to the idols of doctrine and theological systems of belief must be broken and true relationship must replace the counterfeits.

Son, this will need a radical shifting through mind quakes of increasing intensity so that only the truth of My kingdom remains.

The tree of life must be the source.

No other source can create the consciousness of sonship necessary for co-creating through the power of creative thought.

Reality is chosen from the multiple potential possibilities that exist, so the now of My heart will become what will be through what is.

Living from the now of My heart is the only way true reality can be manifested, otherwise all is a product of the DIY delusion.

Son, there is no free will, just the ability to choose, but under whose influence will those choices be made?

No one is free from influence so no one really has free will; there is only programming that informs choice or there is relationship that informs choice.

Heart to heart cardiognosis or mind controlled by nature, nurture or trauma; those are the only choices. The imagination is what makes it possible to connect with the creativity of sonship.

All My children have been made in My image and likeness to be creative but all have lost their identity and have a distorted image of self and therefore have created a distorted God in their own image.

All religion is a DIY distortion that comes from the wrong tree and although there is some residual truth within, there is no life only death.

All religion produces death because its source is I self and independence, knowledge apart from true relationship.

Knowledge apart from relationship can only produce obligation and expectations that lead to religious observance and duty based in fear and not love.

The DIY tree source is fear and that can never produce life.

The tree of life is sourced in love and can never produce death because it has the river of life running through it from the very throne of God's relationship.

Son choose who you will serve because you will serve and be influenced by someone or something.

Present the opportunities to My children for their minds to be renewed by a radical shift of quake proportions.

1 John 4:18,19 Fear cannot co-exist in this love realm. The perfect love union that we are talking about expels fear. Fear holds on to an expectation of crisis and judgment [which brings separation] and interprets it as due punishment [a form of karma!]

It echoes torment and only registers in someone who does not realize the completeness of their love union [with the Father, Son and Spirit and with one another.] We love because he loved us first! [We did not invent this fellowship; we are invited into the fellowship of the Father and the Son!])

The tree of life is the marrying of the relational and the responsible positions of sonship. The tree corresponds to the governmental positions of light within the fabric of the created dimensions which is the matrix of relationship, knowledge, wisdom and understanding that holds all things in relational position.

The tree is the convergence of time and space with eternity the place where life itself is balanced to form the framework of existence.

The tree is where the relationship between light and love is the centre of geometric framework that is Metatron's cube

The tree of life is where all the wheels within wheels within wheels of what was and what is and what will be converge with the now of what always is within the heart and mind of God, being the intimacy of love's conversation between Father, Son and Spirit.

The tree is the doorway into the light of love's essence where the sons of God are positioned in kingdom, where the outward appearance is but a physical representation of the inner being. Fruit and leaves being the outward purpose of love's fruit to restore the health of the physical realm.

The fractal patterns of mathematical symmetry and harmony within the micro and macro visible and invisible are the reflection of precepts, statutes and laws.

The tree represents the ascended positions of maturity in sonship where each element of light is both holding everything together and apart, reflecting the mind of Christ.

The 12 stones, 12 foundations, 12 steps of ascended sons to become ascended fathers are expressed in the 12 fruits of the tree in continual season.

The 12 months are representations of the consummation of the 12 ages of man and the 12 ambassadors hold the fabric of time and space together in harmony and restored relationship of the wheels of the circle of the deep. The crystalline appearance and the orbital appearance are representations of love and light, relationship and responsibility.

Son, a new day is dawning where so many more of My children will truly know Me as a loving Father.

I am revealing Myself to those who are willing to look and seek Me first of all but I am relentless in My pursuit and I will never stop.

There is nowhere I will not go as My love is unrelenting and unstoppable. There is nothing anyone can do to stop Me loving them.

They put Me on the cross but I chose to forgive them and use their own rejection and punishment to facilitate their reconciliation.

I created all things for relationship and I have always had relationship with all things but the time is coming for all things to know Me.

I was slain as an offering for all that have become lost and independent from before the foundation and the fall of all things created.

I cannot and will not be changed by anything or anyone. I am that I am and that is love and light. My precepts, statutes and laws are immovable foundations that cannot be shaken or moved.

I am the same yesterday today and tomorrow and I am love's purest expression and have the deepest desire that all My children, past, present and future, will choose to accept My love and know Me so they can truly know themselves.

I am at work to replace the concept that the written word can replace the Living Word with the true reality that the Word who became flesh and live and loved amongst you is full of grace and truth and is now living within you all. For that fullness of who I am, everyone has already received but the time for realisation is here, and is coming, and will come.

Son, the main task is still to raise up and equip the Joshua Generation. The reality of true relationship must be affirmed even if many people are offended, as without it there can be no true sonship.

You have now laid a foundation of intimacy free from restrictions which can become a platform for the administration of the restoration of all things.

He is calling the sons of God to arise. Are you going to respond? (Facebook post)
