11th February 2021

Son, as you gaze into the light of Our face, what do you see and feel?

Now look deeper into Our eyes and look closer at Our countenance.

As I focused my attention to go beyond the wonder and awe I normally feel, a wave of deep compassion hit me and overwhelmed my emotions, before another wave of passion that was almost too painful to experience.

The eyes were so expressive, so deep with feeling and longing that they drew me in, taking me into the heart of God that was almost in pain with longing and desire for me to know the truth.

Son, you are feeling just what We feel for you; now multiply that by all that We have created and you will get just a glimpse of Our capacity to love.

Many have used the doctrine of sovereignty to make it seem that We are like an ambivalent observer of creation, who has set the plan in motion, that foreknows and allows everything to occur.

Son, as you have just experienced, We are totally invested in Our creation and feel all that you feel, living in every moment of sadness and pain.

I then focused on the kindness I saw in those eyes and the smile I saw on that beautiful face, and a wave of pure joy hit me.

There was an amazing feeling of pride that is felt when we succeed and prosper, and in our creative accomplishments.

God rejoices when we are like Him as we do acts of kindness and self-sacrifice and are motivated by love; and I felt the pride They have towards creation, in spite of the horrors.

We have chosen to give creation the ability to choose its own path. We work within that to bring good and we woo and work to encourage choices that reflect love.

Son, the view of sovereignty that is like fate makes us controllers and manipulators of creation, where in fact We are participators, constantly at work to facilitate loving outcomes.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Six

When someone suffers, is in pain or dies, that is not Our sovereign will and We neither orchestrated it or allowed it: that was a consequence of man's choices. But We do seek to comfort and bring something good out of all suffering.

Our love seeks to cover all the terrible consequences of man's choices and We feel what each feels, as you have experienced, both positive and negative.

Lovingkindness is not a sovereign act, devoid of emotion and automatic, but is a reflection of Our intense desire to care for and comfort those who have lost their way and identity.

Our light is not just a way of describing who We are but a reflection of Our total commitment to reveal the truth of Our love to all creation, to draw all things back to restored union and oneness.

Son, We do not sovereignly allow the horrendous things that happen and they were never part of some great master plan for creation: they are but the consequence of Our desire to respect the right to choose We have invested in creation.

We are not sitting back, waiting for everything to inevitably work out in the end: We are emotionally invested in everyone and in every moment of time.

What is inevitable is that Our love will never fail or give up on even one person, being or part of creation; and the light of Truth will never be extinguished, but will always shine with hope, to draw creation back to the union and harmony of oneness.

Son, We are not above it all in the eternal now, insulated from the reality of creation, as all of the good and bad is now for Us, as you have glimpsed for yourself.

We are 100 percent invested in the restoration of all things and that is why We sacrificed Ourselves before it all began, to ensure that all can be restored to love.

The foundation stone of creation was and still is love; and love is within all things and all things are within love, and that is why nothing can be separated from love's power to overcome and restore.

Love's outcome is ensured, not because we sovereignly will it and control the end but because We are love and will never cease in Our pursuit of restored relationship.

The wrong concept of sovereignty implies that we act on Our own and independently but that is not relational or inclusive, and not the way We made creation to function, which is in harmony as one.

I knew that it was true and the doctrine of sovereignty has been used to misrepresent the lovingkindness of God as indifference and that is a tragedy.

15th February 2021

Son, as you dwell in the light, learn to see not with your eyes but your heart, by looking deeper, going beyond your first impression.

There are layers and levels of truth in the light for those who will continue to look beyond a glance to gaze, ponder and inspect.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Six

The truth is as multifaceted and as manifold as what you see when you look into Our face or Our eyes. Keep looking and go beyond.

There is so much more, beyond wherever you choose to stop looking; so learn to abide, not just visit.

Discern the truth and deeper realities by becoming one with the light, merging your being in oneness and union with the essence of who We are.

Enlightenment is a product of desiring the truth and not rushing to judgment but diligently pursuing the knowledge of the heart.

Knowledge is not just mental information, it is the truth that is beyond the facts that requires a deeper desire to what lies at the heart of any matter.

Son, come deeper and beyond the what, when and how to the why of the truth, for that is where true sonship will be found.

Our desire is to reveal the truth to those who will look and keep looking until they know who We are as the light.

The light is not just illumination so you can see: it is the being that is behind knowledge that reveals wisdom and understanding.

Most are content with knowledge that is mere facts that can change and be interpreted in many ways by the understanding of the observer; but truth is unchanging and can be trusted.

Son, trust is what develops if you learn to dwell in the light of love and truth and go beyond the surface to the heart.

The glory of a matter is hidden beneath the surface and needs to be mined: and that takes the willingness to invest whatever is necessary to discover the treasure beyond the obvious.

The obvious is only obvious because you think you know what is the truth, but mostly it is just opinion formed from confirmation-biased conclusions.

Son, never be content with what appears on the surface, always be prepared to go beyond, be that deeper, higher or further than the obvious conclusion.

We have so much hidden treasure for you to discover that will only be found by the diligent and vigilant pursuit of the truth in the light of Our countenance.

Our favour and blessing is only found in the light of Our countenance through a level of trust that is deep within Our being.

Trust is a product of dwelling in the light of love and truth to know the reality of who We really are so you can be enlightened and gloriously be revealed in sonship.

The revealing of the enlightened sons of God will restore creation by freeing it from the bondage to lies it has been held captive in.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Six

The glorious rising of the enlightened ones will set creation free into the light of their glory, which is their true identity within I AM that I AM.

Son, never be content with 'less than' when there is always 'more than' beyond; so never stop pursuing the beyond that is beyond.

16th February 2021

As I fixed my eyes on the magnificent face of my Father, the light of truth flooded all my senses with the thoughts and emotions that He has about me.

Those thoughts went beyond anything I had experienced before, revealing how precious and special I am, being wonderfully made in His image and likeness, as we all are.

The emotions behind those thoughts overwhelmed me as I began to find a deeper realisation of how strong and unrelenting they are.

Those desires for a return to oneness and union are so powerful that I knew that nothing was too much and nowhere was too far for my Father in pursuit of me.

I knew that the Father was prepared to go to any lengths, heights or depths to restore what has been lost, including descending into death itself.

The waves of emotion that were revealed in the oracles of the Father's heart rolled over me, each one taking me deeper into the knowledge of His unconditional love.

The waves of emotion, unrelenting passion, burning desire, intense joy, deep compassion, overwhelming love, the lovingkindness of blessing and unending union cocooned my being.

Son, this is but a fraction of what We feel about you and all of creation but this is all you could bear without being consumed.

Let what you experienced today become the motivation that moves you to continue to go beyond as you journey towards the fulfilment and consummation of the restoration of all things.

Let Our passion be your passion and you will become unrelenting in your pursuit of the truth, whilst being able to rest in Our love.

Multidimensional living is the only way that you will have the capacity to go beyond every and any beyonds that face you.

I focused the energy within the Merkabah at the core of my being to connect me to each dimensional reality that I dwell in to broadcast the emotions of my experiences to reenergise the quantum expanded moments.

In turn I engaged each of the moments that were the destination points of my many quests and encounters, coming together in a quantum moment of existence.

I am multidimensional and I exist having my being multidimensionally, with each quantum moment a union of experiences, all connected to the unified field of existence.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Six

I dwelt for a moment on the creative cycle that forms reality and reenergised my being to brood in the Cradle of Life for full and complete restoration; the resonance of that desire energised into the sound of many waters, infusing it with emotion.

The emotion amplified the sound in the Chamber of Destiny, fusing my being to the sound of the Father's voice, until the vibrational frequencies engaged the Quantum Lumens within the Chamber of Creation.

The Quantum Lumens received the energy of the Father's desires within the sound of my voice and danced to its rhythm and cadence.

The focus of desire energised by the emotions of the oracles was filled with creative possibilities, all waiting to be streamed through the portal into creation.

Only a cosmic creational union of being such as is forming in the earth shield has the exponential unified consciousness to choose such a reality.

Only when enough enlightened sons are in such a union of desire, becoming one mind, will this choice for the restoration of all things become reality.

Only when we become in union with one heart, one mind, one desire, one passion, one purpose with one choice will the reality of creation being set free into the glory of our sonship begin to manifest.

Son, all other causes need to be consumed with the fire of the desire for the restoration of all things, which is the only cause that encompasses all others.

17th February 2021

Son, the knowledge from the source of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil has infected all of the world systems and it will not be easy to free people from that deception.

Rather than attempting to expose the darkness and the lies, focus on revealing the light of the tree of life so the truth becomes obvious.

Light removes darkness, so increase the light that the sons are shining by encouraging them to abide in the light of love and truth so their identity is unveiled.

When Our sons come close to Us in face to face intimacy, they will resonate with truth and will be able to more easily discern the source and root of knowledge.

The world systems are not neutral like creational systems, they were designed with a hidden agenda that on the surface looks good but is in fact evil.

Lucifer was light and has knowledge beyond most people's imagination but all that knowledge has been twisted and is used for his own 'I will' agenda.

You can always determine the source by observing and comparing 'I will' with 'I AM that I AM' as 'I will' is always less than seeking to be more than and I AM is always eternally consistent.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Six

All selfish motivation comes from the need to elevate self to a higher level through independent self-effort methods that always leave Our children weary and burdened.

The identity lost at the fall from grace to works cannot ever be found or achieved through the knowledge of the DIY tree.

True identity can only be discovered by restored relationship with the true creator and We have never lost sight of the eternal image of anyone or anything that was created by Us.

Seeing yourselves in the light and mirror of Our face is the only way identity can be restored; but the self-effort which always leads to selfishness must be abandoned.

The abandonment of self in pursuit of the truth is the only way to enlightenment and sonship; but the light of I AM that I AM must shine to draw Our children's attention and focus from the darkness and deception of 'I will'.

The earth shield is where the light of I AM that I AM is beginning to be unified into oneness so that the earth can be illuminated by the light of love and truth, and not cosmic, created light.

The glory of sonship is the light of oneness and union and cannot shine in independence: all concepts of 'I' must be surrendered to 'we'.

The mind of Christ is anointed and powerful through the relational oneness of Perichoresis; and only in a unified consciousness of oneness is the glorious light of sonship going to be revealed to creation.

A unified mind has abandoned 'I will' for 'we are' and never seeks for independent identity because true identity can only be found in relational oneness.

Look at I AM that I AM and you see three as one God in complete harmony; yet Father, Son, and Spirit has its own personality with no competition.

You can be individual within the oneness and mystic union of a collective unified consciousness that has ascended beyond, to a higher plane of existence and reality.

Son, encourage everyone to look into the light of Our face; but to do so effectively they will all have to go through the dark cloud where self is surrendered.

The pursuit of identity and destiny will take Our children on a journey through the fires of purification, refining and transformation.

Only the pure in heart can see God - and themselves - so encourage Our children to follow the light of the tree of life to enlightenment.

Rest is the key to restoration, revelation and creativity.

Start to focus on your breathing, slowing it down, and start thinking of the name of God, YHVH.

Breathe in deeply the unconditional love of the Father.

Be still and feel loved.

Be still and know that I am God.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Six

I am love, I am joy, I am peace, I am truth, I am limitless grace, I am triumphant mercy.
Invite love, joy and peace to flow in you and through you to create an atmosphere of rest around you.

You are in a safe place.

Start to think of an open heaven and set your desire upon engaging the Father's heart.

Engage the realm of light to experience the light of love and truth at deeper levels of being.
