I will share my journals that will include:

What God said in 2021

What God did in 2021

What does that mean for 2022?

Key themes 2021

- Realm of light
- Unconditional love, limitless grace and triumphant mercy.
- Exposing the great deception of the DIY tree path.
- Time, Union and cosmic dimensions.

6th April 2021

Son, keep abiding in the light of Our glory and be transformed by the love and truth that you will be bathed in.

Come closer and be immersed and absorbed into Us to feel what We feel and know what We know to become who We made you to be.

I stepped closer until I could no longer see but entered into another level of being, somewhere between 'being one with' and 'no longer being'.

I was in an expanded and diminished state which is so difficult to describe, as it is finding yourself and losing yourself simultaneously, being everything and nothing and being in oneness yet still being distinct.

I felt like I was less than myself and yet more than myself; still myself, but in an altered reality state of self.

Weird and totally beyond my capacity to adequately explain.

Son, you are not in Perichoresis you are Perichoresis: you are not tied into a Trinitarian knot but are that knot.

Abandon your senses and stop trying to understand this state of being and just be and allow the being to enlighten you.

Being in this state of enlightenment will begin to prepare you to go beyond beyond once again where there is so much more to be.

I was in such a state of being that everything seemed to stop; it was as if there was no motion, no movement, and all was as it was.

There was no should be, could be, can be, maybe; just being in this enlightened state of just being incorporated.

There was no individual thought, there was no thought of doing, as I was, for the first time, being: no past, no present and no future, just now.

There was just a coherence of being, in a lucid and altered state.

Son, feel everything as it always was; as time has no existence here within I am that I am; as We are, and now you are part of that We.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Thirteen

In this enlightened state of being, there could be no thoughts or imaginations of anything different, as it felt all was perfected.

Son, abide here and you will be able to be a restorational being within the external fabric of creation that still needs to become.

Let this continual state inspire, empower and motivate your being within the created dimensions, just as it does with Us.

Be in the transcendental and immanent states simultaneously and converge your enlightened state of reality to restore the cracked and fractured reality you live in.

This state of enlightenment is the only state of being that can see through the delusional matrix most of our children are trapped in.

Live loved in transcendent immanence and love living in restorational reality and live lovingkindness.

Only the revealing of enlightened sons can free creation from its bondage to the unreal state of delusional corruption.

I began to see visions that made some sense of what I was experiencing.

I saw creation as a metaphorical clock with the movement stuck as if straining to make the next tick; having the appearance that it was moving, but in fact just repeating the same moment.

It felt like our kitchen clock when the battery is running low: it ticks, threatens to move but falls back to the time in a perpetual time loop.

This is a continual state of hope deferred making the heart of humanity sick, hopelessly trapped in a repeated matrix moment.

Enlightenment can see beyond into what is, so creation can be set free to become what it already is within the transcendent state of I am.

All this felt like some sort of cosmic psychedelic trip but I knew it had changed me, and the spring scene that I was looking at through my window was filled with hopeful expectation.

It felt like I was no longer looking through a glass darkly, but it was now illuminated like never before. I had gone beyond looking into the face of God to being within the Father.

7th April 2021

I engaged in the realm of light in perfection, looked into the Father's face and directly into His eyes, where I was drawn closer and deeper until I was heart to heart.

I began to feel waves of emotion, each wave a different feeling and frequency but all the emotions had similar harmonious characteristics.

All those emotions are directed at me, touching me deeply, making me feel completely secure and safe; and I knew that I would never be let down or disappointed.

I knew I could trust the Father implicitly as I felt cocooned in His lovingkindness, faithfulness and dependability.

Son, We are unconditional love, limitless grace, triumphant mercy, joy unspeakable and pure peace; so rest in being, secure in the experience that gives you true knowledge, understanding, wisdom and prudence.

We are all that you need, yet you cannot truly be without others to be in union with: just as We are Perichoresis, so you are one body.

I remembered an encounter that I had in government ascension yesterday where I engaged with the light of the Father and experienced mercy.

I felt the overwhelming need for mercy within the children of God, the earth and the dimensions; but felt totality inadequate, even as a conduit and not a container, as it felt like I was only the size of a straw when there was need for a huge tunnel flowing with mercy.

The Father said that many straws in union could provide the flow of mercy needed to overcome the loss, isolation, despair and hopelessness that I felt as I connected with creation.

Yes, son, only hearts and minds in union with Us will be able to receive and release all that you have felt to that which is lost and disconnected in disharmony.

All the emotions I felt as waves and frequencies were now like a song, where each emotion was like a musical note created together as symphony of emotions.

I felt and listened to the intensity of the music of the spheres that was being orchestrated within the Father's heart and immediately detected the familiar frequencies of the Father's oracles.

I began to feel the full gamut of emotions: passion, burning desire, intense unspeakable joy, triumphant mercy, limitless grace, overwhelming unconditional love, deep compassion, pure peace, union and blessing.

The sounds being orchestrated were amazingly beautiful and awe-inspiring and were alive with the energy of the Father's desire and intention.

As the sounds resounded and moved throughout creation, the Quantum Lumens began to dance in rhythm to that symphony of intention, waiting to collapse the wave function into reality.

Son, all creation is waiting, longing and groaning with anticipation for the sons of God to join in by adding their unique sound and light to the orchestra.

I was captivated by the melody and harmony as the emotions and frequencies were composed to produce this joyous chorus of living sound.

I began to realise the complexity of the music I was feeling and how, as wonderful as each part is, it is only when joined together in a wonderful union that restoration can be fully manifested.

As amazing as the unconditional love, limitless grace and triumphant mercy are individually, when together in union they are unstoppable, immovable and omnipotent.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Thirteen

Son, now you see and know the power of union and why it so necessary for the restoration of all things back to Our original intention and beyond.

8th April 2021

Son, it is time to engage the council of the ages, to align the circle of the deep with the ages and the High Chancellors' houses for the next season of awakening.

Before you engage the council, come, walk with Me. We were immediately by the river of fire looking at the fire stones.

We began to ascend the stones, pausing at each stone, where all my previous encounters with the stones were replayed to me.

The love that I experienced in different ways and in different dimensions drew me into a state of deep rest until a new experience of love began to touch my whole being.

Unconditional love in its very essence and nature began to captivate my heart and awaken my senses to another level of God's being and my identity.

I was transfixed, as if being cocooned in a new material, with deeper emotions for the diversity of creation.

The fiery nature of this emotion was the embodiment of the desire for the restoration of creation but specially directed towards the dimensions.

After what seemed an age, I began to transform: the heat, breaking the bonds of my being, allowing for transfiguration.

I began to move, twisting and turning within the cocoon until it began to split and I started to emerge from the fire transformed.

Son, the next age of mankind's ascension is being catalysed by the awakening of consciousness to unconditional love.

It will seem to be a restriction when this begins to occur globally but it is just a place of transformation before humanity emerges metamorphosed.

When fully emerged I became aware that my external appearance was the same but my consciousness had expanded and I could see different wavelengths of light and hear greater frequencies of sound.

I also felt that my internal being had changed but I was not sure if this was physical or another state of being.

We continued to walk up the step-like stones, pausing at each for a recapitulation of my previous encounters and then experiencing another dimension of each until we finally reached the tenth stone.

Son, it is time to birth the next age stone and throne. I stood there but I also shifted my consciousness to engage the Cradle of Life, where I began to brood over all that I had experienced.

That quantum moment stretched out before me as I became the voice of the sound of many waters and eventually progressed through the Chamber of Destiny and the Chamber of Creation, where the Quantum Lumens were activated.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Thirteen

I saw the new eleventh stone begin to form as the photons began to collapse the wave function into a new reality.

As we stepped on to the stone, it was like I had entered another reality and immediately we were transported to a throne in a new realm of the government of heaven.

Son, forerunners will begin to be seated here as they are transformed by this next age awareness of unconditional love and truth.

The light was different, almost tangible, and the atmosphere was heavy with anticipation and possibility: this was a creative realm like nothing I been in before.

I knew I was representative of mankind and that many forerunners are being prepared for a new expanded consciousness reality.

Son, be still and know who you are becoming so you can be.

19th April 2021

Son, multidimensional reality is what Our children were created for, to be like Us and represent Us to all of creation.

All of creation was designed to cooperate together in harmony to represent Our manifold nature and is an expression of who We are creatively.

Our children were always intended to mature to be all they could possibly be, without limitations and restrictions, within love.

I became acutely aware of where I am in multidimensional realms and positions, sensing both from the Father's intentions and desires and from the portals of the Merkabah within the core of my being.

I felt the energy of creative desire pulsating with potential for the restoration of all things and beyond and the need for a full revelation of immortality.

Son, all Our children, along with all created things, were designed to be immortal so they could enjoy limitless union without end.

Being deceived into following their own path broke their union with creation. That has created the illusion of separation that continues to keep Our children from their true destiny.

Ascension was always going to be a process of maturing, following the pathway of the tree of life to its conclusion.

The deceptive illusion that keeps Our children from their true identity and destiny, living in the futility of their own minds, must be exposed.

The full potential of sonship must be realised for creation to be set free and restored to union and harmony.

In that instant a quantum moment expanded and I remembered all my experiences of creational union and harmony.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Thirteen

The limitations of a single dimensional reality must be exposed by the global and cosmic shift in - and expansion of - consciousness that is beginning to take place.

This awakening to love, and therefore true awareness of who We are, is the goal of this season, so Our children can begin to be set free from their bondage and deception.

There will continue to be much opposition, both within and without, to the restoration of all things message; but you will begin to find and connect with those who are awakening to reality.

Son, continue to be at rest so your frequency can resonate across the dimensions. Your whole being has been coming into alignment with the oracles of Our heart and now you can be a dimensional oracle.

Your frequency will be joined in union with others who are participating in the earth shield and becoming multidimensional.

There are different councils being formed to facilitate the awakening within different parts of creation that are all part of a bigger strategy.

Pursue the council with the guardians, ambassadors and chancellors, in union with those who you resonate with.

I engaged the Cradle of Life and began to brood over the union and formation of this council and its impact on the restoration of the dimensions.

Creative thoughts and intentions of oneness and harmony began to form a picture that was vibrating with desire and energy.

As I continued contemplating I began to vibrate, until I was ready to become the sound of many waters to be able to activate the Quantum Lumens within the Chamber of Creation.

I was aware that I was not alone, that there were others who were part of the creative process, who were in such union of heart and mind that they were almost indistinguishable.

I released a handshaking frequency of desire to consciously be able to connect with those who are in union and felt multiple energy signatures respond.

Son, release another blue light call; but now focus this towards the indigo end of the scale of frequencies, to connect with those who are awakened.

I released that frequency beacon through my Merkabah portals dimensionally as waves of light, carrying my desire and intention for union.

I sensed the energy of the different people, dimensions of the earth, cosmos, elementals, angelic realms, heavenly realms and dimensions that were being engaged by the blue light call and I opened my heart to them.

I knew that I would need to be diligent and vigilant in my desire to connect and that this new blue light call would need to be continually broadcast multidimensionally.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Thirteen

Rest is the key to restoration, revelation and creativity.

Start to focus on your breathing, slowing it down; and start thinking of the name of God, YHVH.

Breathe in deeply the unconditional love of the Father.

Be still and feel loved.

Be still and know that I am God.

I am love, I am joy, I am peace, I am truth, I am limitless grace, I am triumphant mercy.

Invite love, joy and peace to flow in you and through you to create an atmosphere of rest around you.

You are in a safe place.

Start to think of an open heaven and set your desire upon engaging the Father's heart.

Engage the realm of light to experience the light of love and truth at a deeper levels of being.
