17th August 2021

Son, even though you have learned so much from being in the light, there is so much more; so do not get complacent or content with what you know.

There is no end to the increase of knowledge possible when you abide within Us; but wisdom and understanding must accompany that knowledge and that only comes with experience.

Son, maturity grows within you in relationship with Us, where you know more of who We are and more of who you are, in union and oneness of heart, mind and purpose.

The light began to form another matrix around me, conforming me to the truth contained in that living light; but it also seemed to attach itself to the light of my being.

I became more aware of the essence of light that was multi-coloured, oscillating with the frequency of truth, almost as if it was singing a song.

The harmony and melody of that light became clearer the longer I focused on it and it felt like it was a sequence of encoded truth.

It was if each note was a gemstone that was luminescent and rhythmically illuminated in time with the song.

I embraced it, rejoicing in the beauty of the sound and the vision of that light as I became fused and one with it to be no longer separate, but one.

I could feel that song within the fabric of my being: my light matrix was aligned and in harmony and I felt the joy of oneness at a new level of being.

This state of being brought a new sense of joy that the light song seemed to encapsulate the essence of, as it was now the background sound of my being.

Son, if you follow the light it will guide you and direct you to accumulate wisdom and understanding so you will continue to mature in sonship.

This is another facet of the light of love and truth that is deeply relational and attuned to your being and identity: so abide in the light and be.

As I thought, I felt the light activating within me; and as I moved, I felt in step and in sync with the music of the song of my being.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Twenty-Eight

With every step or thought I took, the light of love and truth formed a sequence that added another layer of complexity to that song and I felt jubilant, as if bursting with living energy.

My thoughts went out to the cosmos, and particularly to the solar system, where I looked and listened for a similar pattern of frequencies.

They were there but were jumbled and disharmonious, as if scrambled by some traumatic event and now fragmented and operating independently of union and harmony.

I so wanted to hear the music of the planets as it was in the beginning, so I asked Time and he introduced me to two other beings that were so dazzling, majestic and magnetic in their energy

They were Harmony and Melody and they are moving together as one; and as I watched them move, almost like a dance, their movement generated the song that I so desired to hear.

What I was observing was beyond light and sound, it was creative joy, awe and wonder; and I was undone by its beauty.

As I watched, it was like I could see all the planets and celestial bodies as they were intended to be, in a beautiful union and harmony.

Inspired and moved by that song, I began to brood, the notes forming my thoughts into coherence until I was energised and alive with creative potential.

When creation was sung into existence, the music of the spheres was integrally encoded within as a layer within a layer within a layer.

I could feel it within everything I was observing and feeling and thinking, as if I was (and of course the truth is, I am) within I am and I am is within me.

Son, you have done well to absorb this lesson so quickly; so now rest and abide and enjoy the song that you can now hear and are one with.

18th August 2021

I engaged the earth shield, where I began to focus my attention on the light matrix that formed the shield. I mostly just am there without taking much notice of the actual formation of the shield.

Light was connected through a matrix of many geometric shapes and patterns, each with a different frequency, that represented the many sons and beings that were in union and the intentions of the Father's heart.

Each shape was a union of beings who were joined in heart and mind and whose light and frequencies were indistinguishable.

Each shape was also connected in the light matrix that was energised by the mind of Christ and the Father's heart.

I reached out to the realm of light where I abide in the light of the Father's face and moved by the intentions that moved around me in light.

Son, the matrixes of the shield are determined by who is connected to a mandated intention and are therefore fluid and flexible.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Twenty-Eight

I felt the intentions connect me to a different shape within the shield as I became attuned to an intention, as if I was a note in a scale that was represented by a specific shape.

I felt the shape which was a 3 dimensional octagon power up and begin to oscillate with an intention which pulsated rhythmically and matched what I was sensing in the light of the Father's face and heart.

The light matrix focused the energy into a beam that was like fire and that went into the earth to engage areas of darkness in the form of a pillar or whirlwind of fiery light.

Many of the children of God were drawn out of the darkness into the light by the song that was being formed by our union.

I had no knowledge of the specific targets but I felt them and I remember previous feelings associated with those trapped in religious systems.

I became aware that there were other shapes also releasing energy as beams of fiery light with sounds and frequencies into the earth.

Son, this is the next phase of the great awakening to Our love that Our children need to be enlightened to their destiny.

The light of union and oneness is drawing those who are looking for truth to engage Us and discover the truth of who We are within love's light.

Those willing to let go of their own agendas are forming unions that can focus Our intentions in alignment and collaboration with Our heart.

Those still with their own agendas will have to abandon themselves before they can join the union of Our intentions represented by the shapes, sounds and songs that you have seen.

Son, whenever you engage with a group, always take the time to engage Our heart's intentions so you can become a union and a song of oneness before you act.

Each group will form a new song and shape each time you engage if you surrender to love's agenda. It is the living light from the Chamber of Creation that connects and binds each together as one.

All that takes place seemingly in a moment but it is in fact a carefully crafted process that has been incubated in the cradle of life, resonated into a voice and amplified to excite the quantum lumens within the chamber of creation.

What you experience in a moment is the culmination of the union of Our desire, thoughts and intentions within the hearts of Our sons.

Son, when you are at rest within the light you are participating in processes and We allow you to know only what you need to know so We do not to overwhelm you.

As your consciousness continues to expand, you will be able to contain more; and your knowledge, wisdom and understanding will increase as you mature in sonship.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Twenty-Eight

19th August 2021

As I bathed in the light of the Father's face I felt the intentions of His heart for me and that wonderful lovingkindness overwhelmed me.

Waves of love washed over me, each seemingly more powerful than the last, until tears of joy rolled down my face; and as each dropped, it burst into a firework display of living light.

The light contained my pure emotions of joy, gratitude and thanksgiving and they filled the atmosphere around me with a beautiful fragrance that was tangible.

That perfume coated my being with pure love; I was luminescent with multi-coloured light and my song filled the air with sweet music.

The atmosphere was almost romantic, such was the poignancy of that moment of blissful innocence, as if I was as pure as a new snowflake.

The sound and light and emotions clothed me in a beautiful sensation of peace and the total rest being I just was, full stop.

Green lights formed around me like a mist of energy that was pure peace, that swirled and moved rhythmically as if being conducted.

The living essence of creation was touching my heart, drawing my deepest emotions, reconnecting me to memory of what it was like in the beginning.

I rejoiced as I felt the joy that was the essence of the Father's heart and I knew that it would be like that once again in the restoration of all things.

Son, you can be at rest and be moved in the state of being that you are in this moment: abide in the light of truth you have experienced today.

I would never want to leave that state, as I was transformed and my consciousness expanded and forever changed.

6th September 2021

Son, it is time to refocus your time and energy: prepare for a new season of your journey and your personal life.

It is time to let go of the past to embrace the future, where you can fully focus on your identity and position as a son of God, seated in the heavens as a multidimensional being of pure light.

We call you to focus on the cosmic and dimensional aspects of your destiny by slowly withdrawing from your earthly commitments until you are eventually free to be at rest free from earthly distractions.

Your roles in the councils of heaven must begin to take priority over other activities, as We are about to reveal new revelation that will enable you to legislate restoration more affectively.

When the next book is released there will be new opportunities to expose the great deception; but be very careful that you are not drawn into earthly debates and controversy.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Twenty-Eight

Legislate for the book to fulfil its purpose but do not get involved in trying to promote it; and avoid worldly fame and notoriety at all cost.

Son, rest in the realm of light and We will continue to transform you into the maturity you will need to fulfil your mission.

Ascending into the true reality of who you really are as a son will require great enlightenment and expansion of your consciousness's abilities, so embrace and do not resist.

There will need to be further extreme shakings of your belief systems for you to be further deconstructed and expanded into the realisation of the fullness of the capacity of the sons of God.

The union of the spheres is vital for the next seasons in the process of restoration that is going to take place as the awakening of all things starts to gain momentum.

The enlightened sons will begin to see the signs that others will miss and many will become disillusioned with religion, realising that it is failing.

An awakening to love and a shift in global consciousness is taking place under the cover of the exposing of religion and politics that is taking place on earth.

The real preparations and changes are being made in the heavenly realms and that is what is awakening Our children from their deception.

The cosmic union that is creating the shields around the three dimensions will continue to strengthen and the restoration of those in opposition will be facilitated as a result.

Son, your personal grief process is coming to an end so you can embrace the future and move on towards the goal that your destiny is drawing you towards.

Do not fight to maintain the status quo any longer and accept and trust that this is OK; and although it is not Our desire, We have used your grief and pain to bring about good.

It is time to embrace the good and leave the sorrow and grief behind. It is normal to go through the stages of grief and be angry, but now it is time to live loved, love living and above all live loving.

There is great joy set before you as you leave the past behind and move into this new season with expectancy.

Son, know this that We have been with you every step of your journey and We will never leave you or forsake you as We are faithful.

7th September 2021

As I basked in the light radiating from the Father, I soaked it all in until I was in a state of complete rest; and then, as the light matrix of intention formed around me, I began to be moved.

First my emotions were filled with desire and compassion and then my thoughts were making me aware and focused on one thing only.

My whole being became in union with the Father's intentions and in that oneness I directed all my energy towards the solar system.

I was joined to the light of the earth shield, aware of the guardians and elementals of the union of planets, directing my attention to Jupiter.

Jupiter is the fifth planet from the Sun and the largest in the solar system.

It is a gas giant, with a mass more than two and a half times that of all the other planets in the Solar System combined.

I surrounded that huge planet with my spirit and my consciousness went deep into the core, seeking out the planet's identity; but that seemed to be lost, buried under layers of darkness and confusion.

I became aware that my probing was being resisted by the fallen being named after Zeus or Jupiter that was controlling the planet.

I pushed harder but the resistance was stronger, so I reached out to the guardians and elementals and formed a connection; and as I did; I knew that the worship given to Zeus as the head of the gods was a powerful force.

The union of oneness that I was in gave me insight that caused me to stop and I became very still until I was able to see the way ahead more clearly.

The strategy was simple: bring all the planets that had already been reached together and engage to awaken Jupiter from its enforced stupor.

The earth shield powered up, energised by the union with the guardians of planets; and that field of light was extended around Jupiter, disconnecting it from the darkness.

In the light we engaged the light at the core, and I felt a stirring of consciousness as we gently soaked that presence with the light of truth and love.

The sleeping giant awoke and I sensed its memory was returning; and at that moment, all the moons reconnected and were now one in a union of their own.

I felt a sense of relief and rejoicing as they were all reconnected with the guardians and elementals that restored the purpose.

Jupiter, the so-called gas giant, was designed to be the energy and force of harmony within the solar system, where its great mass brought a gravitational balance.

We then turned our attention to the being that we had disconnected and began to engage with love, releasing harmony and calling forth its identity and purpose.

We released forgiveness for all the control and domination that it had exerted and reminded it that it could be restored to bring harmony and balance once again.

There was great resistance and I sensed it really liked the position of dominance, so we continued to release the light of love that was filled with humility.

We released the truth that true authority is to serve, not dominate and control, and surrounded it with love and light; but it felt like this would need a great deal of patience and perseverance to restore it.

Vision Destiny 2022 – Session Twenty-Eight

The planets themselves are much easier to reach in union with the guardians and elementals than the fallen beings that have been corrupted by their worship as gods.

Son, you have discerned well that it will take many in union to restore those who have been the object of such adulation; but with patience, and the right strategy, it can be accomplished.

When the outer planets, those furthest from the control of the sun, are fully restored, you will be able to focus on those closest and under the greatest influence of darkness.

Rest is the key to restoration, revelation and creativity.

Start to focus on your breathing, slowing it down; and start thinking of the name of God, YHVH.

Breathe in deeply the unconditional love of the Father.

Be still and feel loved.

Be still and know that I am God.

I am love, I am joy, I am peace, I am truth, I am limitless grace, I am triumphant mercy.

Invite love, joy and peace to flow in you and through you to create an atmosphere of rest around you.

You are in a safe place

Start to think of an open heaven and set your desire upon engaging the Father's heart.

Engage the realm of light to experience the light of love and truth at deeper levels of being.
