

To function in a governmental sonship position we need our identity as sons to come from the Father. We need a cardiognosis, face to face, heart to heart, knowing the desires of the Father's heart. Governmental sonship is reflecting the Father's heart.

As we mature as sons we are given greater levels of responsibility with a wider remit. We all have a responsibility for planet earth and its restoration but there is more to creation beyond the earth, extending to the cosmos and the dimensions.

As we mature or ascend higher we will discover that we have creative abilities far beyond what we could have imagined. We have the ability to live multidimensionally not just travel to dimensions.

There is a new level of relationship that the Father is inviting us to engage so that we know His heart. Union and oneness are required if we are going to engage creation as sons representing the Father's desire for restoration.

There are other realms beyond our physical dimension.
There are portals to those dimensions in the constellations
There is access through the portals associated with the everlasting doors.
North, South, East and West Gates

The west gate is an important example of what is needed to engage other gates. During a group encounter, Wisdom was present. She said we could learn how to safely activate and open gates on her heights.

I went to wisdom's heights to engage the 4 doors I have previously entered but they were closed. Wisdom said to engage the gates with my heart and feelings, not with my mind, for information. Our heart is the key to opening gates.

I reached out to the gates with my heart and began to sense like I was seeing with an infrared camera. There were colours and energy that was different for each door. Wisdom said "Reach beyond the gate with your feelings." I was able to sense what was beyond the gate.

I opened my heart to the door/gate to let it know my intentions were good and aligned to the Father's heart. I felt the emotions of the door and it opened. I used this wisdom when engaging the west gate.

There is so much more for us to learn about gates and portals so that we can be effective in our interactions to restore the correct purpose and function to the gateway systems.

This is a transcript of another government group engagement which has similarities and differences that relate to the different people involved and the group's mandate.

I saw legal scales. All of us were on one side, and we were lower down, and the Trinity was on the other side. As we began to engage, we balanced out and then came together. As we came together, I saw the gate behind us and the gate was enormous. It was ornate and beautiful.

And I saw the light glowing from behind it. The light was penetrating me, and I became transfixed with it. I was engrossed by it. I kept hearing the words, are you ready, are you ready?

Are you ready to bind and loose?
Are you ready to build up and to tear down? Are you ready?
Are you ready to restore and entangle? Are you ready?

Keep your eyes fixed on me.
That's where the gateway of love will allow me to draw you in and allow you to go.
Be ready to receive.
I think that's what He was saying.

I was engaging the Father's heart and what I saw was a river of love flowing from the Father's heart.
Then we became the river. As we became the river, we flowed with it and we flowed straight to the gate.

I saw many angels awaiting us.
They had executive orders in their hand at the gate and we also had the executive orders in our hands.
The orders are the same and we are in the river of love.
We are in union of heart.

The orders are like a kind of passport to the gate.
I saw the angel Union and also representatives of the other planets.
They are attracted to the outcome and they are with us waiting.

They are so excited, waiting for this piece.
They have been waiting for so long for us to do this.
They are so excited that we have come.

They are here to receive restoration.
They are standing here together with us in agreement and union.
They are really longing to see and to receive restoration.

I first saw that we were given keys to unlock; and these are the keys of the kingdom, to release and to bind.
Then I saw a table spread before us.
I immediately went back to what David said,
"The Lord spreads a table before us in the presence of our enemies."

Then I saw that we had goodness and mercy with us and we were crowned with love.
We also had a sceptre, but when I looked at the sceptre it was actually a rod and staff.
Then I saw two beings with a kachina, which is a witchcraft doll, and a bafflement.

It was like they felt we were coming to fight them, and they wanted to try and protect what they had.
They were trying to form a barrier to prevent us coming in and then I heard 'mastermind of trickery'.

I was drawn to look into the Father's face. I was drawn to look into his eyes.
I saw that his eyes were on fire and I kept looking to see what more there was to see.
Then I could feel the water around us and I could feel and hear the wind.

And I realised that we are the earth, the gold dust of the earth. I could sense that the elementals were there with us.
Earth, wind, fire and water.
I was led to brood over hope, because I've been struggling with this myself around some personal stuff.
Then I realised that the beings of Hope, Harmony and Balance were there with us.
And I called out for Wisdom; and Wisdom was right there.

Finally, I saw the quantum lumens, and they were swirling.
They are swirling all over the place and we are light beings.
We're all entangled with one another and entangled with the light and love with the Father.

I was actually sensing that there was a process of scanning for the purity of the heart.
There's a balancing that has to happen. What I was sensing is there's an atmosphere that we have to acclimate to. Almost like a weightlessness.

As I was engaging, I felt my stomach go around and then settle down.
I sensed the Family showing me that there's an acclimation needed for each one of us and it's different for each of us.

There is also acclimation for us as a group and I sense, I don't know if it's for today or not, that there's a mission for us, but that it is exploratory.
There is no need to rush; so exploration for wisdom, knowledge and understanding is key.

I saw us to back-to-back and we were encapsulated in the presence, the peace of God. The family of God are around us.
There's a balancing where we come as one with them as a group. Individually and as a group.

Each of us were facing outward, with our backs facing inward.
We were each bringing a perspective of what's beyond the gate back here.
Each of us is grasping that perspective and bringing that into the earth realm.

I was sensing that we were proceeding as an exploratory mission and bringing things back.
I don't know if this is for today.
I do know that step one is an acclimation, and it really has to be a oneness, within our own being, and then corporately with each other and the Family.

I want to add something that I forgot to mention. I love what everybody has shared.
And when we were talking about Psalm 23 and the rod and the staff, I felt each of us were given tools. I had I forgotten this piece earlier.
Each of us received different tools. We also each wearing different garments and our garments had patterns on them.

The tools also had patterns on them.
These patterns were a reflection of the patterns in the gate. The gate had patterns.
There is a connection there between what we were given and what we we're being prepared to do.
The part about this being an exploratory mission is accurate.

When I engaged the Father, I felt again his desire for union and oneness and harmony.
Whatever we were going to do, that union and oneness and harmony needed to be behind our desire.
Then I asked the Father what we can do with this executive order.

The Father said, "Son, you have permission to explore the realm where the gates interact with the everlasting doors.
"You can open the West Gate and observe beyond."

What I understand by that is that we can look and see, but not necessarily go through and engage.
From there I went to have a quick look. I felt Wisdom come with me.

We went into that realm, the realm where the everlasting doors are, and the realm where these four gates are.

Sometimes when I engage the portals are round but this is more of a square, a square type of gate. It did have symbols around it, quite a lot of them. I did feel that the north, south, east, and west gates were divided.

They were not four separate gates that were together in one small area. They were separated, as if at the ends of the compass points in this realm. There was a guardian angel for each and I saw that there were sentinel angels around the West Gate.

I didn't fully understand what I was seeing. But I felt Wisdom impressed on me that this was a connection. That what we were seeing was the connection between the gates and between the gates and the everlasting doors and between the gates and the solar system and probably beyond that.

But the connection point is what I was focused on. There were light filaments or wormholes of transportation and communication between them. It felt like this was a nexus point or hub, a connection between different places and realms.

I asked Wisdom what went on here.

What was this used for?

Wisdom, basically, talked about transport and communication.

It felt like that whatever the balance and harmony is between this and the solar system, that it is connected through these gates.

It is then distributed through the everlasting doors into the earth.

Then on the earth there were areas or things aligned to north, south, east, west - other gateways, or perhaps receivers of frequency and energy.

(For example) Let's say Saturn released frequencies. Those frequencies would go through gates connected to the West Gate, East Gate, or different gates, then come through to go through the everlasting doors into the earth.

There are areas on the earth that would receive those frequencies and then create energy fields around the Earth:

Fields of energy, fields of balance, fields of harmony, fields of light.

Those energy fields would replenish the earth, creating that fruitfulness; and all the planets also had frequencies that they were releasing into the earth.

These gates were also used to transport things.

On the original sites of those (north, south, east, west) gateways or receivers were built what we call megalithic structures, like pyramids, ziggurats, structures that were all aligned perfectly with true north.

They are manmade counterfeits that were built to be receivers and also communication structures. Just like at Babel, they were trying to open gates to dimensions to make contact and trade.

What wisdom said was that these had been used illegitimately by the watcher angels to release information into the earth.

She said that the dimensional aspect of the gate was the realm of possibility, that it connects us to the realm of possibility.

I sensed that to engage this gate would be connected to information and discovery that we need (for restoration).

This is definitely a very key dimensional place for different things.

I wasn't really focusing so much on the dimensional aspect of it but more on how they function.

Let's go in, reengage, and do whatever you feel led to do.

We can definitely open the gate as we've got the orders.

We saw there are angels there also with those orders.

There are a number of different angels that we've seen: Union, Hope, Harmony, Balance and Wisdom.

There's a lot of activity around it.

I think there's a lot of observation. The planets are definitely engaging, looking to observe and see.

Let's first engage and share what you're seeing, what you're doing, and we'll see where it goes.

I think the permission is to open it (the Western Gate) and engage around it, but not necessarily go through it.

Unless you feel personally you've got permission to go through it.

I'm going to observe and look and see what we can see, but I think we definitely have authority to open it.

Father, thank you for all that you've shown us. All you've revealed to us.

Thank you for the executive order that we have and the permission you've given us.

We seek for clarity. We seek for more insight. We seek for what we're called to do and what our function is in this realm.

Engaging the gates, the everlasting doors and whether they're wormhole transport systems.

We engage and step into that realm, and seek for continued clarity. We ask you, Wisdom, to help us with any insight that we need.

I am engaging and I am seeing a lot of activity, a lot of angelic activity, elemental activity, solar activity with the solar system.

There's a lot of energy there and I can see the light connecting the different realms, so much energising going on.

We've got the executive orders.

Looking at the gate, I can see the gate has Lion, Ox, Eagle, Man on it. There are various symbols around the gate.

I feel before we open it, we need to do something to recalibrate the gate, to reconnect to the gate. It feels like this gate has been used illegitimately.

It is being guarded but there's a sense of apprehension about the gate or what's on the other side of it.

I think we can engage it, to prepare.

We call for the recalibration of this gate, the reengaging with this gate.

We call for the guardian of the gate to connect with us.

I choose to release forgiveness towards the gate for how it's been used.

I choose to release forgiveness to those who have used it inappropriately.

I choose to release forgiveness to those that have created the fear around the gate.

I choose to release forgiveness to those that have opened the gate to invite things into our realm which should not have been done.

We want to bring peace to the gate. We declare peace to this gate.
We prepare to engage the gate by coming into a sense of peace and rest ourselves.
Using the executive order and the executive order the other angels have, we call for the West Gate to open.

It feels like it's opening, but not like opening as a door.
It is like the four corners (in sections) are receding back, so that it is opening.
There is a lot of light. Too much light for me to see at the moment.

I felt led to take the sword that I have, which has the symbols on it and patterns on it that were similar to the gate itself, of the Lion, Ox, Eagle, Man. And I touched the gate, with the permission of the angel, and it illuminated very much in the way you were describing.

I felt forgiveness and peace, and also a joy.
The being of Joy was there, because Joy was releasing an anticipation or an expectancy because of the forgiveness and the peace.
I can see the doors illuminating, glowing.

As you were speaking, I was seeing that the gate was being refashioned as a diamond; multifaceted, brilliant light, like it was being resurfaced.
It came to me also that we are the gates of the never-ending supply of heaven.

Our presence right there and our "being" where we are living stones, with a fire on the inside of us, there is a multifaceted pyramid around us. This is what is emanating out of us.
As we open a door and start to walk through, this is what was emanating out of us.

I want to speak to the gate to also offer and extend gratitude to the gate for its faithfulness. I want to honour it for its role as protector.
As my eyes are acclimatising to the light, I sense there's nothing to fear on the other side at this moment.

That what we've done and what has been done has cleared around the gate on the other side for us to see, without engaging anything in a negative sense.
It feels like there's a clearing, a preparation going on.

I can see beyond the gate that there are other light connections, and these connect to gates out in the solar system and possibly beyond.
There is also a dimensional area which I'm not really drawn to at the moment.

I'm really focused on looking at the light connecting the different planets in our solar system within this gate.
The light seems to be connecting to other gates.

Wisdom is saying that if we had fulfilled our sonship mandate to fill the earth, we would have used these gates to travel to the other planets and the moons.
This would have been our transport system to expand the garden, the kingdom to those other places.

I've been sensing ever since we approached (the gate), that Neptune is asking for talks, maybe.
I don't know what a good term would be. But to sit down and have peace talks.
I'm hearing that the proposed name for Neptune was supposed to be Janus because it's really about beginnings, gates, transitions, time, doorways, passageways.

It was the god of beginnings that presided over conflict.

I sense that there's some peace talks there that need to occur because I think what you're talking about, the transportation system, Neptune is a part of that. But it was misnamed.

Neptune is the god of the sea, or Poseidon. These are the counterfeit for what Neptune is supposed to be. As a transport system, a gateway, or passageways, I don't have a lot of clarity on that. I just sensed that there's some peace talks that are going to occur there with all of us.

Neptune is a blue coloured, watery planet. I agree that it needs to be renamed but I don't think it needs to be renamed after another god, but after God's original purpose for it.

Its purpose was to bring stability. It was to be a stabilizing influence and the frequency that it produced would bring stability that would be in preparation for growth or preparation for something new. But before anything new can take place, things need to be brought to that place of stability, rather than instability.

There is a sense where it's been misused.

The turbulence of the waters and the seas has brought instability, where its original purpose was to bring that sense of stability that would enable things to go beyond.

I'm still engaging with the gate and I can see that there is this realm of possibility.

It feels like there's a creative sense where this is connected to information, discoveries, inventions.

The House of Discoveries within the Chancellors' houses is connected here.

What I hear Wisdom saying is that there has been information that has illegitimately come through this gate into the earth, which was used to trade negatively and has resulted in weaponry and pharmacology and other negative things, some of it very negative; but there is also legitimate information.

And there's legitimate discoveries and there's the treasures hidden in darkness and those treasures are hidden for us to discover.

It feels like we can create a list, like a wish list of presents that we would like to have as knowledge, or wisdom, or discoveries, that would come from this gate.

By engaging the Father's heart it feels like there are discoveries that are needed at this point.

Some have already been released and are suppressed; but actually there are more discoveries, some to do with energy, some to do with health and also transport.

There is other information, in the form of discoveries that we can create a list for.

We can create a list to be able to call forth from out of the gate, the realms of possibility for new things.

Wisdom also said that we also need to be able to engage the other gates, the north, south, and east gates as well.

I can also see engagement with the elementals of the earth and the elementals of the planets taking place here.

There is communication taking place, reconnecting taking place here.

They are actually engaging around the everlasting doors.

I humbly request new wisdom, knowledge and understanding around frequency, dance and song; and how the creativity of the arts is meant to be life-giving, life-affirming and life-sustaining.

I think before we meet next time that we can draw up this list. Maybe each of us will have components for this list.

Things that the Father puts on our hearts for discoveries, for information, revelation and truth that needs to be revealed, needs to be released.

That we can call it forth from the realm of possibilities that is connected to this gate.

I sense, as we continue to explore that, that it goes beyond bringing something back. It's also about being a conduit for that.

That's what the design function is. We're not there yet, but I wanted to add that in.

Everything that is being said is amazing. I keep seeing that conduit in the shape of DNA strands and it's going through Pluto back through all the planets.

It's an energy conduit really, our DNA. It's energy that's flowing through them all and illuminating them all. I think its purpose is to help us see what it is all about, what can be transformed.

It's connecting all the planets and the ones that we don't even know about, to help bring the recalibration. I saw Pluto being completely redone in diamonds and different elements or metals. It was quite beautiful. It was being redone and releasing this conduit back through the rest of the system.

I think Pluto has to be renamed as well. It's a oneness that they're looking for.

It begins with us, the reconnection of ourselves: spirit, soul and body. Father, Son and Spirit.

I see it almost like a mass of oneness coming together.

Pluto is the gateway planet. It is a connection point as well.

Interestingly, since the latest spacecraft flyby of Pluto, they've discovered that Pluto's atmosphere is condensing, it's becoming water again.

Previously, the whole thing has been so frozen that there's been no real atmosphere.

They've discovered it has condensed since the last flyby several years ago. Changes are taking place.

Things are happening. There's a re-energizing of it, which is great.

Something else I was sensing with Neptune a little while ago was that it was coming out of double mindedness into dual realms, like it's an interface.

I don't have any understanding of that, but I wanted to put it out there.

Another thing I felt about the list was Wisdom saying let the list come from within you. Let it come out from within.

I also thought she was inviting us to engage with her and interact with her for any assistance we might be looking for around the list.

One question for you, before you go. This was coming to mind and it wasn't for today.

There were beings - serious beings, a race of beings. Tall necks.

I was thinking that maybe that's part of what we will also be led to minister to?

What it felt like is that what we were doing is creating a safe place to observe what was going on and we didn't want any interference.

So, I think what you saw, and what maybe their desire was we were able to dissipate so they didn't interfere with what we were doing.

There are definitely beings, and that gateway has been used to allow dimensional things through previously.

This gate in reality is now closed. It didn't stay open. Once we closed it, it's now guarded. And we've got to make sure we administrate properly.

There's definitely things which would want to use that gateway for the wrong purposes and use that as access into the earth, which we must make sure we deal with.

So, what I think what we were able to do is engage the gate and make a safe environment for us to see and look at, which those things weren't able to penetrate or access. But they would have if we hadn't done something, if we hadn't done what we did. We could have had all this negative interference.

This was a preparation to acclimatise (acclimate) ourselves to how it works, how it functions. There may well be opportunity for us to deal with some and restore some beings. Those things are connected to the other dimensions on the other side of that gate. It felt like this gate opens to connect to many other gates.

Some of those were dimensional gates, which is where some of the things in the past have come through. What we did in recalibrating the gate was to connect it to the good stuff.

If someone had connected to that gate and used a different form of engagement, they could have connected to the bad stuff.

The gate itself is not a dimension, but a connection to other things, rather than where other things dwell.

Initially, I had no idea what would happen when you open the gate. I just know what happened where it's been opened before. Some pretty negative stuff was engaged.

But it was opened using ancient workings, using sound and movement, to open the gates deliberately to connect to those things.

Whereas we've actually opened it and recalibrated the gateway connection to connect to good things and see what it is that we can actually engage with in a positive sense.

All of creation has its eyes fixed, looking for true sons to be revealed.

Will you be one of those sons?

Will you accept the call?

Will you embrace your destiny?

Will you accept the responsibility?

He is calling for the sons of God to arise.

Let's engage and ask the Father to show you what you need to see right now on your journey.

Rest is the key to restoration, revelation and creativity.

Start to focus on your breathing, slowing it down; and start thinking of the name of God, YHVH.

Be still and know that I am God.

I am love, I am joy, I am peace.

Invite love, joy and peace to flow in you and through you to create an atmosphere of rest around you.

You are in a safe place.

Start to think of an open heaven and set your desire upon engaging wherever the Father takes you.
