

Module 8 Heavenly Realms 10 Engaging Eternity

A major aspect of the heavenly realms is the governmental perspective
 There are different levels of governmental authority relating to the different realms
 Our mountains and our thrones are positions of governmental authority that are in different realms

Zech 3:7 "Thus says the Lord of hosts, 'If you will walk in My ways and if you will perform My service, then you will also govern My house and also have charge of My courts, and I will grant you free access among these who are standing here.'"

Heaven's Court System

Eternity – outside time and space, God Himself – in Him we live, move and exist Act 17:21

Eternity: highest created realm

Perfection

Heaven of heavens

Heaven

Kingdom of Heaven

Kingdom of God

Spiritual atmosphere of the earth realm

Kingdom of the Earth

Under the Earth

Other dimensions

Technically eternity is not a created heavenly realm but it can be accessed through various places in the heavenly realms

Eternity is not about the length of time but where time does not exist as we know it linearly

Technically, eternity is not a biblical word at all there is no equivalent word in Greek or Hebrew

In English one meaning is a state to which time has no application or timelessness.

Synonymous English terms wrongly used to interpret Greek and Hebrew words are eternal, forever and everlasting

"Eternity" is one of the most controversial words in the Bible. To many, it is thought to be the realm where time goes on and on, non-stop, ad infinitum, into which one enters after death.

Most common evangelical view which has created related doctrines that include and exclude

Module 8 Heavenly Realms 10 Engaging Eternity

Greek words aiónios (an adjective, derived from aión ("an age, having a particular character and quality") – properly, "age-like" ("like-an-age"), i.e. an "age-characteristic" (the quality describing a particular age)

(Aiónios) does not focus on the future per se, but rather on the quality of the age (aión) it relates to. Thus believers live in "eternal aiónios life" right now, experiencing this quality of God's life now as a present possession. (Note the Gk present tense of having eternal life in Jn 3:36, 5:24, 6:47; cf. Ro 6:23.)

2 Tim 1:9 who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity, Source is outside of time

Greek word "aidios." "Eternal" is an excellent adjective for God. Clearly He has no beginning nor end but is used only twice and never in relation to man
Hebrew word "olam," which is translated in English as "everlasting," and "forever" does not mean endless

The meaning of "olam" is "duration of time which is concealed or hidden." In other words, an unknown length of time.

Though it may have been a very long or even indeterminable period of time, the sense that it would come to an end was implicit in the meaning

The Greek adjective "aeonios," for which so many translations mistakenly use the word "eternal" is derived from the noun "aeon." "Aeon" means "age" or "ages"
These ages are time periods having a beginning and an end.

Col 1:26 that is, the mystery which has been hidden from the past ages and generations
Eph 2:7 so that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus

Greek aeonios is mistranslated in English as eternal, forever or everlasting; actually means age-enduring or lasting for the age
Equating aeonios life to eternal life is an impossibility. "Aeonios" and "eternal" are words having totally different meanings.

The misapplication of the word "eternal," implying timelessness, when periods or portions of time are meant, has created wrong doctrines when interpreted as forever, everlasting or eternal
Matt 25:46 is a clear example which links salvation to eternal wrongly

Matt 25:46 These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."
Context is not salvation at all
Aeonios punishment is contrasted to aeonios life. eternal (aeonios) life."

It is argued that the latter is supposed to mean endless life, hence the former supposedly means endless punishment.
Reasoning that if the punishment is limited, the life must also be limited, the duration of each being expressed by the same word.

Though the reasoning appears to be logical, it is based upon the unfortunate mistranslation of the word "aeonios."

Module 8 Heavenly Realms 10 Engaging Eternity

Age enduring life in context is referring to preserving life during the destruction of Jerusalem i.e. the end of the old covenant age

"Salvation" when used by Jesus, speaking to those in His generation, was not the evangelical, spiritual meaning of 'living in heaven forever' but is about the saving of physical life during that generation

The fact is "aeonios" wherever it is used in the New Testament has one uniform meaning. When applied to God, He is the aeonios God, or the God of the ages, i.e. the Being who through aeons of time is working out His wonderful plan.

The word "aeonios" has the force of belonging to, or in connection with the ages; for example, "aeonios life," "aeonios salvation," "aeonios redemption," "aeonios inheritance," "aeonios fire," and "aeonios punishment"

Matt 24:3 .. "Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?" 8 But all these things are merely the beginning of birth pangs. 13 But the one who endures to the end, he will be saved. 14 This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

Matt 24:29 "But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 30 And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven,

Matt 24:33 so, you too, when you see all these things, recognize that He is near, right at the door. 34 Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. Jesus said that the old covenant, law-based age would end in that present generation – finally in AD70

When I am using the term eternity it defines a state of 'being in the always now' outside of time and space, that we came from and can still engage

We are in God and God is in us therefore we can access anywhere God is including the eternal now

As sons we have access to eternity, the I AM, what was and is now, before there was anything other than God

We can engage the eternal aspects of our identity and destiny

Heart of God outside of time and space

Your eternal home in the dance of God's love

True intimacy and true identity

In eternity I have discovered restored relationship with love's essence beyond anything I have experienced in time and space

There is restored spiritual memory but you may need some deconstruction and renewal of the mind before this becomes cognitive

We can become reconnected with who we were as pre-existing spirit beings

Reconnection to creation as it was before it was in bondage to corruption; that motivates us to participate in its restoration

By engaging the heart of God in the eternal now we can listen to Him heart to heart in cardiognosis as He unveils the hidden mysteries of our destiny
He will reveal how special we are to Him
He will show us our true identity

He will show us our true purpose
The what was was of the now of God's heart can be legislated in the what is of the 4 faces of God's name to release what will be through our lives into the earth
We begin to resonate with our scroll God's heart our destiny

When our spirit engages God's heart it brings us into peace
Wholeness is when our spirit resonates with God's in agreement and our soul resonates with our spirit in cooperation and agreement
This works easier once our soul and spirit are separated and reintegrated

Our scroll is a written representation of God's thoughts towards us
Our scroll reveals who we were in eternity in God's heart
Our scroll reveals our redemptive gift and purpose in and outside of the different time dimensions

Our scroll reveals our true identity
Our scroll reveals our true destiny
Our scroll reveals what we can do
Our scroll is embedded within our spiritual DNA in light
3 strands of DNA as we are made in the image of God

2 strands of DNA represent our body and soul and carry the record of our mother's and father's generational line
The 3rd light strand carries the record of our eternal image and purpose
Our destiny scroll encoded in light releases desire into our heart and transforms and conform us to our eternal image.

Our scroll is opened day by day to direct our paths
Ps 119:105 Your word is the light to my path. The word is Jesus, the living word of God
Heb 4:12 living word that God spoke in eternity can be active in me.

Module 8 Heavenly Realms 10 Engaging Eternity

Our scroll can be engaged in many places, scroll room, Arc, God's heart

My scroll has a preface or overview, a blueprint that aligns my life and directs the desires of my heart.

9 strands of God's DNA get added to our 3 stranded identity as we are joined to the Lord and one spirit with Him.

We grow in maturity as we behold and then become conformed to our eternal image

This ongoing revelatory process occurs as we step into Him and are baptised in Him

As we stand on the firestones

As we stand on the dance floor

As we are skinned with His nature, character and armour.

As we engage His heart in eternity

Our scroll has our governmental position encoded within it with the 9 attributes of government revealed in God's precepts.

Precepts, statutes, laws – ordinances, mantles, weapons – scrolls, discoveries, commissioning into sonship etc.

Our scroll enables us to recognise and resonate with all the things that are part of our destiny, our calling; including our redemptive gift, relationships, tasks, quests, mandates, ministry, heavenly positions, heavenly roles etc.

Some of the questions people ask when they start to talk about destiny are:

'Who am I?'

'Where do I come from?'

What was I designed for?

They are good questions that need to be answered

We need to understand where we come from so that we can understand why we are here today.

That will lead us on to where we are going tomorrow.

This is how our destiny gets outworked one day at a time.

We need to understand the nature of our creator, and our creation.

'Who did He create me to be?'

'Why and how did He create me?'

All these questions being answered relationally will help us understand and fulfil our destiny as a son of God

It may seem really obvious to say it, but it is important to grasp that God is eternal, meaning He has always been

He is, and He will always be, and is everywhere – omnipresent

He is almighty, that is 'all-mighty' – omnipotent

He is all knowing – omniscient

He is light (1 John 1:5).

He is love (1 John 4:16).

He is Spirit (John 4:24).

He is a consuming fire (Heb 12:29)

We can engage God and experience all these truths in life-transforming encounters

Module 8 Heavenly Realms 10 Engaging Eternity

We can meditate on these truths and others like them and they will open up a doorway that will enable us to engage with who God is.

If we engage Him and know Him, that intimate relationship with Him will help us know who we are by the face-to-face, beholding experience

We pre-existed (not in 'cold storage' within God until He defrosted us and sent us within this earthly body).

We observed creation and participated in it and had a spiritual function before this physical dimension

When I saw creation I remembered

There are many access points to the eternal now of the heart and mind of God outside of time and space

Ancient paths from within the name of God's 4 faces in the holy of holies

Pool within the Father's garden

Firestones

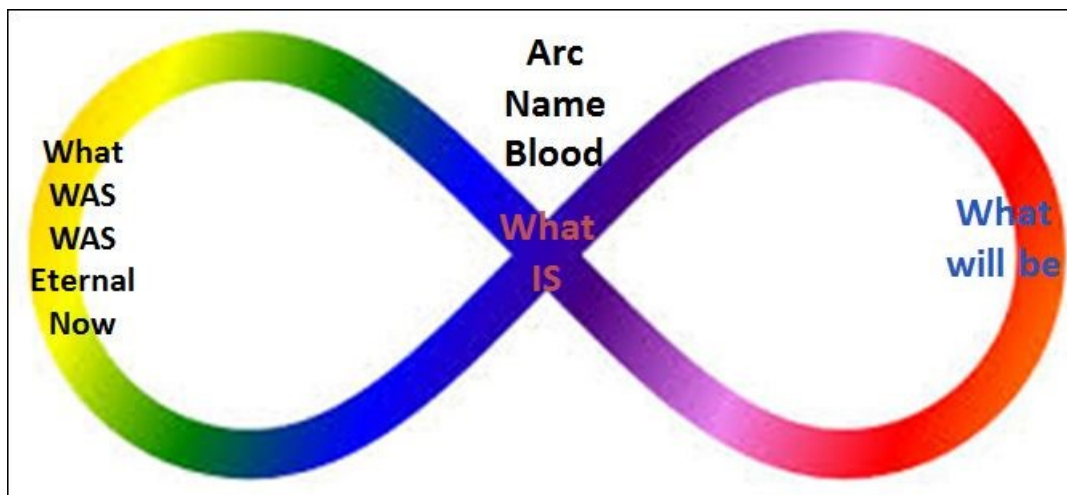

Within Metatron's cube

My encounters within the heart of

I AM were deeply transformational both in discovering the true nature and essence of relational love and my own identity

We are going to ask Jesus to take us to engage the Father's heart

Only go where He leads you

Steps like Jacob's ladder leading up to heaven
Start thinking about those steps and the open door
Hear the invitation to come up here
Let those steps form in your imagination and by faith walk up those steps to the door step through the veil into the kingdom realm

Module 8 Heavenly Realms 10 Engaging Eternity

Jesus is standing in the doorway
Present yourself to Jesus your High Priest as a living sacrifice

Ask Jesus to take you to engage the arc within the tabernacle
Let Him take you by the hand and lead you
You look into His presence
You begin to think of His name YHVH
You see His 4 faces rotating morphing
Step into His presence into His name
You may feel drawn out into eternity engage the ancient path
Walk back on the ancient path within the YHVH into the heart of God

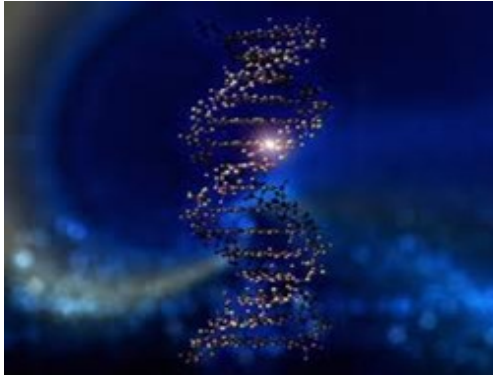

You may feel cocooned in His heart
Ask the Father reveal His true essence of love
Ask the Father reveal His heart of love for you

You may see yourself as light
You may feel the conversation of His heart about you
You may hear His thoughts about you
You may feel who you were always meant to be
Sense your eternal identity and destiny

Module 8 Heavenly Realms 10 Engaging Eternity

Rest

Allow His thought to envelope you in the womb of His hearts

Feel His frequency of love vibrating in your spirit

Let Him reveal His heart to your spirit once again

Let Him reveal His amazing thoughts about you
