He desires to find visible, individual expression in your person.

Living Sacrifices

- Rom 12:2 Do not allow current religious tradition to mould you into its pattern of reasoning. Like an inspired artist, give attention to the detail of God's desire to find expression in you. Become acquainted with perfection. To accommodate yourself to the delight and good pleasure of him will transform your thoughts afresh from within.

Living Sacrifices

- (The word, aion, is traditionally translated as “do not be conformed to this world.” Actually aion points to a period of time of specific influence. In the context of this writing, Paul refers to the religious traditional influence of his day. The word euarestos, comes from eu, praiseworthy, well done + arestos, meaning to accommodate one’s self to the opinions, desires, and interests of others.)

Living Sacrifices

- Rom 12:1 spiritual service of worship.
Rom 12:2 so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.
- It is important unpack these phrases if we are going to embrace being living sacrifices and being transformed

- In 1 Cor 6:15-16 it is compared with becoming one flesh in sexual union
- Serious level of experiential intimacy
- He is holding nothing back are we?
- We can't separate relationship from rulership so we serve from and not for relationship

Living Sacrifices

- Psa 139:16 Your eyes saw my unformed substance, and in Your book all the days [of my life] were written before ever they took shape, when as yet there was none of them.
- John 4:34 Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to accomplish His work.

- Not conformed to the world's shape but be conformed to our eternal image
- Rom 8:19 For the anxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for the revealing of the sons of God.

Living Sacrifices

- We need to understand where we come from so that we can understand why we are here today.
- That will lead us to where we are going tomorrow.
- This is how our destiny gets outworked, one day at a time: by daily seeking first the kingdom

Living Sacrifices

- We need to understand the nature of our creator and our own creation.
- Who created me, why and how did He create me?
- All these questions will help us understand our identity and destiny as a coheir and co-creator

Living Sacrifices

- God is eternal. It may seem really obvious to say it, but it is important to engage our destiny in Him
- He has always been, He is, and He will always be. He is omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent
- Being a living sacrifice is being yielded to our eternal destiny relationally

Living Sacrifices

- He is light (1 John 1:5). He is love (1 John 4:16). He is spirit (John 4:24).
- If we meditate on this truth we will begin to engage with who God is.
- If we know Him, if we have that intimate relationship with Him, it will help us understand the reality of our identity and destiny

Living Sacrifices

- Jer 1:5 “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, And before you were born I consecrated you; I have appointed you a prophet to the nations.”
- ‘I knew you’ - Here is a key statement about who we are.
- If we know Him we will know ourselves

Living Sacrifices

- God was speaking to Jeremiah, but He is also always speaking to each of us.
- He knew me, and He knew you, before He formed us in the womb.
- Knowing is not intellectual exercise but an experiential intimate encounter.

Living Sacrifices

- We existed even before we were in the womb, since God knew us then as desires in His heart
- God did not just have some vague thoughts about us but a vast sum of intimate thoughts that created us
- Intimacy is two-way, so actually, we knew Him too as spirit beings

Living Sacrifices

- He consecrated us and set us apart because He had a purpose for our lives which was relationship and a destiny He knew, and we knew
- It is part of our very being. He has appointed each of us to a particular role, task and position in sonship

Living Sacrifices

- For Jeremiah his destiny was as a prophet to the nations.
- Who has He called you to be?
- What has He appointed you to?
- What has He called you to do?
- Where is He calling you to be?

Living Sacrifices

- The good news is, you can know through relationship
- God knew you, before you were even a physical being, and He wants you to know Him and come into agreement with Him again
- You can ask Him, and He will begin to reveal it to you relationally

Living Sacrifices

- 1 Cor 15:48-49 As is the earthy, so also are those who are earthy; and as is the heavenly, so also are those who are heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the earthy, we will also bear the image of the heavenly
- We need to be conformed on earth to that heavenly image as living sacrifices

Living Sacrifices

- Just as we were born in an earthly body, we have been born from above and our spirit is active and alive to God.
- So we now bear the image of the heavenly that is who we were before our earthly body and physical life

Living Sacrifices

- If we are to be royal priests we must be of the order of Melchizedek no genealogy
- We are new creations of the lineage of the last Adam not the first Adam and we need to be conformed to that image through being living sacrifices

Living Sacrifices

- We need to be bearing the image of who we are the in the heavenlies and outworking the things that are going on there here on the earth.
- God has opened up the door for us to engage with the heavenly realms, so that we can be, see and reflect what is going on.

Living Sacrifices

- Psa 139:16-17 Your eyes have seen my unformed substance; and in Your book (scroll) were all written the days that were ordained for me, when as yet there was not one of them. How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them!'

Living Sacrifices

- God's plan is for us to enjoy peace and wholeness;
- His plan is to prosper us to see us succeed.
- He gives us a hope by giving us a vision of our destiny.
- Do we know who we agreed to be?
- Do we know what we agreed to do?

Living Sacrifices

- Contrary to some teaching we did not agree with the bad and traumatic things that may have happened in our lives
- God's plan is for our good not harm for us to succeed not fail
- Trauma was not part of God's plan but restoration and healing is

Living Sacrifices

- Do we know our name?
- That may sound like a strange question, but God has a name for us which is our true name.
- It encompasses our identity and position, all we are as sons and all He intends us to become

Living Sacrifices

- It is a heavenly name which is assigned to us in accordance with our destiny.
- It is the name that is on our thrones, and in our scroll.
- It is a name that can only be discovered in relationship with our heavenly Father

Living Sacrifices

- When I saw my name, I knew it was me. It will be the same for you, because your spirit will leap in recognition, just as John leapt in Elizabeth's womb when he sensed Jesus in Mary's womb.
- That is what happens when aspects of our destiny start to take place around us. Things start to move us and our spirit begins to leap.

Living Sacrifices

- That scroll was written not only before we were formed, but before God created the heavens and the earth.
- Understanding who we were then, even as an 'unformed substance', will really help us to understand who we are now.
- Everything we are called to be now was written then, on our scroll.

Living Sacrifices

- Sometimes we will find that we have done the things that are written on it, even though we might have never read it.
- That will happen because our destiny is inherently tied up with who we are.
- When we choose to line up with the purposes of God, and seek to be guided by Him the fulfilment our destiny will begin to unfold more consciously

Living Sacrifices

- We pre-existed not in cold storage within God until he defrosted us and sent us within this earthly body
- We observed creation and participated in it and had a spiritual function before this physical dimension
- When I saw creation I remembered

Living Sacrifices

- How precious are Your thoughts
- Psalm 139 tells us that God has many thoughts about us, because He knows us intimately.
- We need to get hold of those thoughts, because they will transform how we think about ourselves. It cannot be anything but life-changing for us to know how God thinks about us.

Living Sacrifices

- I guarantee that not one of us thinks about ourselves 100% the way God does.
- But the more we allow God's thoughts toward us to affect the way we think about ourselves, the more transformation we will see in our lives, and the more we will become like Jesus.
- We will do the things He did, and the greater things we are called to do.

Living Sacrifices

- The thoughts of God toward us today are totally in tune with what was written on our scroll before the foundation of the world and what we agreed to for this realm
- But destiny is not fate. We have a choice, to agree with God and pursue it, or not.

Living Sacrifices

- We already agreed with Him when our scroll was revealed.
- If we choose to agree with Him now, it is essential for us to get hold of His thoughts toward us and to know progressively what is written on our scroll.

Living Sacrifices

- Engage the scroll room of heaven and read what we our allowed to
- Engage the fire stones and absorb it

- You may feel cocooned in His heart

 - Let the Father reveal His heart of love for you

- Feel the conversation of His heart about you
 - You may hear His thoughts about you
 - You may feel who you were always meant to be
 - Sense your eternal identity and destiny

- The Father wants to reveal a deeper revelation of His names to you as a son
 - Be enveloped in the circle of the dance
