Sons Arise

- Individual inheritance includes our Identity, Redemptive Gift & Destiny
- Who am I – my identity
- How am I made – redemptive gift
- What am I made for – destiny or birthright

Sons Arise

- That gift is put in us at conception, and determines the course of our lives, regardless of whether we become Christians or choose to reject Christ.
- Each person has one primary gift that shapes how we think, feel and act by default

Sons Arise

- It is how am I wired up or made that enables me to engage in the process of restoring creation
- Psychologists term these differences in people as “basic temperaments”, or personality types.
- How wonderfully am I made

Sons Arise

- Prophet
- Servant
- Teacher
- Exhorter
- Giver
- Ruler
- Mercy

Sons Arise

- Psalm 139:14 I will give thanks to You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Wonderful are Your works, And my soul knows it very well.?
- Psa 139:17 How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

Sons Arise

- There are other contributing factors that will influence how the redemptive gifts are expressed in a person's life.
- Do we know and understand ourselves fully?
- Yes - then it probably won't matter
- No - it is important to understand

Sons Arise

- Maturity
- Everyone is at a different level of maturity in their personal development and Christian life.
- A person's level of maturity will colour how they live out the characteristics of their redemptive gift.

Sons Arise

- Those who are immature or those who are not seeking to live in the fruit of the Spirit will exhibit the weaknesses of their gifts more than the strengths.
- While nobody has reached perfection, we should all be working on our character issues to grow up to maturity.

Sons Arise

- Woundedness
- Everyone has experienced painful situations and relationships that have left them wounded.
- Wounds can change our perception of ourselves and of God.

Sons Arise

- For example, someone who grew up with an abusive authority figure may become very self-sufficient and independent because they believe they have to make it through life on their own.
- This is not how God necessarily designed them to be if they are exhorter , servant or mercy gift

Sons Arise

- In the prophet and giver gift independence is motivated through the God-given design.
- How we are broken, the pain in our soul, our wrong response to pain, the coping mechanisms, and how we compensate for those wounds will influence how our gift is expressed.

Sons Arise

- Sometimes people build walls of self-protection as a way of surviving painful circumstances.
- These self-protecting walls may not reflect our gift and may hinder its God-intended expression.

Sons Arise

- Identity in relation to redemptive gift
- I am functioning for or from my redemptive gift?
- I am using my redemptive gift to give me my significance
- Who would I be if I could not express my redemptive gift?

Sons Arise

- You are You so find out who you are designed to be
- You are unique
- Everyone is unique
- You are in a process
- Everyone is in a process
- Have grace and patience for each other

Sons Arise

- Why are there potential negative characteristics in each gift?
- We mature through overcoming
- We maintain our dependence on God in the process
- We need each others gifts
- It helps maintain our humility
- Stops us being arrogant & puffed up

Sons Arise

- Adam was sinless but not perfected
- Process of subduing and overcoming causes growth and maturity
- We must learn to let the spirit rule over the soul
- We must relationally walk with God during this process

Sons Arise

- Luke 9:23 And He was saying to them all, “If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow Me.
- Maturity and transformation come through sacrifice & surrender

Sons Arise

- Gal 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me.
- Apply the victory of the cross to stop living independently and living selfishly

Sons Arise

- Father desires to call forth the redemptive gifts of our sonship
- I call forth your identity as My sons
- I call forth your redemptive gifts
- I call forth your identity as an overcomer & conqueror
- I call forth your ability to subdue and rule your soul until it is separated and reintegrated

Sons Arise

- I call you to be transformed - renewed mind
- I release the gathering angels to expose & remove stumbling blocks & lawlessness
- To expose & remove demonic strongholds
- To expose & remove iniquitous roots

Sons Arise

- To expose & remove birthright curses
- I call you to surrender & trust Me
- I call you to know your true identity, gift & destiny as My children

Sons Arise

- Rom 8:28 And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.
- Do you know His purpose for your life?
- Have you accepted His call?

Sons Arise

- Rom 12:2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is ...
- World may have masked, damaged or perverted our identity, our gift & our destiny
- God desires to transform us to out work who we are in His service

Sons Arise

- Each person is and has a primary gift
- That gift influences the course of our lives, regardless of whether we become Christians or choose to reject Christ.
- Psychologists term these differences in people as “basic temperaments”, or personality types.

Sons Arise

- It is how am I wired up or designed that enables me to fulfil my destiny to engage in the process of restoring creation
- The redemptive gifts are received at conception, rather than salvation.

Sons Arise

- Jeremiah 1:5 “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, And before you were born I consecrated you; I have appointed you a prophet to the nations.
- We are designed on & with purpose

Sons Arise

- The gifts tend to shape our personality and the way we may then receive one or more of the spiritual gifts, offices or ministries
- A redemptive gift is the grace of God woven into who we are; that when we are made right with God we become able to honour Him with how He has made us to be.

Sons Arise

- How I am intrinsically made to function
- Ideally with Spirit and Soul in harmony
- Our soul or heart personality traits developed independently of our spirit
- Damaged, masked or perverted by life
- Discover the gift then purify and refine the heart to define & polish it

Sons Arise

- You are You
- You are designed
- Everyone is designed
- You are unique
- Everyone is also unique
- You are messed up in someway
- Everyone is messed up in someway

Sons Arise

- You are a mixture
- Everyone is a mixture
- We are all in a process of refining, purifying to remove the mixture
- So we can be us as designed by God
- Respect and honour the differences and uniqueness in each other

Sons Arise

- In thinking about the characteristics of the redemptive gifts, it is important to look at what is learned or acquired behaviour versus the essence of who and what God designed.
- Purification and refining separates the gift from negative programming

Sons Arise

- Redemptive gift surveys
- If you have done it before use this time to reflect
- If not use the surveys by answering instinctively not try to reason
- The results help us know how we are wired to flow from our identity not work for our identity

Sons Arise

- If God were to remove your ability to function in your redemptive gift personality how would you feel?
- The answer will determine how easy it will be to surrender
- The more performance orientated doings we are the harder it is to surrender and learn to just be
