Sons Arise

- Note the first time any thing occurs in the word of God it sets a precedent
- Look at what happened in the first proposal
- Canopy, house of God, glory cloud covering
- Huppah or Chuppah – Ketubah marriage contract

Sons Arise

- Ex 19:16 So it came about on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunder and lightning flashes and a thick cloud upon the mountain and a very loud trumpet sound, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled.
17 And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

Sons Arise

- Ex 19:18 Now Mount Sinai was all in smoke because the Lord descended upon it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked violently. 19 When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him with thunder. 20 The Lord came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain

Sons Arise

- Ex 20:1 Then God spoke all these words, saying, 2 “I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. 3 “You shall have no other gods before Me.
- We call this the 10 commandments but in essence this is God’s part of the Ketubah the marriage contract

Sons Arise

- Ex 20:18 All the people saw the thunder and the lightning flashes and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw it, they trembled and stood at a distance.
- They look up, and they 'see thunder' and they 'see lightning'. How do you see thunder?

Sons Arise

- Thunder is Hebrew 'Kole. In every other place in the Bible, it's translated 'voices' or 'languages'.
- It's the same word when Moses heard the voice out of the burning bush – Kole.
- So they look up, and they see 'voices', or 'languages'.
- The word lightning is the word "glorified fire".
- It's the same word for fire out of the burning bush.

Sons Arise

- The Ketubah has just been handed down; they're standing there, and the whole mountain covers them in a huppah; and they look up, and they see languages inside fire.
- What would the languages have been saying?
- Will you marry me?

Sons Arise

- Marriage process was initiated by God
- Israel came out of slavery in Egypt
- Under a covering of cloud, fire, thunder
God's voice in the wilderness
- He issues an invitation will you marry
Me?
- They sent Moses and rejected the invitation but God married them anyway

Sons Arise

- They said: Moses, don't have God speak to us any more, unless we die.
- You go figure out what God wants, and then you tell us what God wants; but don't have God speak to us any more, lest we die.
- God says: they didn't want to accept, because they felt unworthy.

Sons Arise

- Day of Pentecost we have the same fire and voice of God
- Church begins with a mighty rushing wind, tongues of fire and God's voice
- Will you marry me
- Tongues from their spirits said YES
- What can we learn from marriage process?

Sons Arise

- Look at the 5 stages of marriage
- So we can see and engage the process for ourselves
- We will also clear up the misunderstandings about the 10 commandments and put them in context

Sons Arise

- Exodus 20 we see what is called the 10 commandments this is the Ketubah.
- A Ketubah is a marriage contract made under a huppah or covering cloud
- It is vital for our relationship that we know what God's expectations of us are
- It is equally vital to know what our expectations of God are as revealed by His promises and blessings

Sons Arise

- Normally it would be: bride, and her father; groom, and his father - and they would make an agreement, a list that defined the basic boundaries of the marriage.
- The bride could put anything in the Ketubah she wanted; as could the groom as long as they both agreed

Sons Arise

- Then once that was agreed on, that became the rules of the marriage
- If anyone broke the terms, it was called: 'marital unfaithfulness'.
- After it was agreed upon, they would: sign it; then stand and face each other
- Groom would say to her: "I go to prepare a place for you; that where I am, there you may be also".

Sons Arise

- Bride would say: “when will you come back, to receive me unto yourself?”
- Response “I do not know the day or the hour, but when my father approves the wedding chamber, he'll send me back, to receive you unto myself.”
- Familiar words John 14 that help us put Jesus death on the cross in context of marriage

Sons Arise

- John 14:2 In My Father's house are many dwelling places; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. 3 If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also.
- New covenant preparing us to be the place of intimacy - marriage

Sons Arise

- Jesus taught John 14 they all understood the significance God still wants to marry us?
- Think about the Ten Commandments in terms of a marriage contract.
- Ketubah God's expectations of His people for His part of the contract are actually also God's promise to His people
- What are our promises or vows to God and our expectations of God as our part of the contract?

Sons Arise

- We need to see the correct perspective of the 10 commandments and understand Ketubah and our relationship with God
- Many people live under an incorrect old covenant view of God
- It is not a set of rules to restrict us but a relationship to free us

Sons Arise

- The people were slaves for 430 years.
- A 430 year heritage of slavery; 430 years of your opinion not mattering; 430 years of getting up every day and making bricks
- Seven days a week; 12 hours a day; 365 days a year - day in and day out.

Sons Arise

- They had no human rights
- Ten Commandments is about helping a group of slaves learning how to be human again.
- God is trying to teach a group of people how to live in the true freedom of relationship

Sons Arise

- Develop a culture that's going to have His way to live - so the whole world would look at what they have, and want it.
- It is also a wedding proposal: God proposing marriage to a group of people.

Sons Arise

- In the new culture God respects their basic dignity – not like Pharaoh
- God respects His image in us
- It is so difficult to be a son with a slavery mentality
- Truth to free us not laws and rules to restrict and control us

Sons Arise

- This is radical shift from 430 years of slavery
- “Thou shalt not steal” - no one's thinking that's a rule how restricting
- In the new culture - you can't take things from me, just because you can?
- That would have been amazing in itself but there was more a deeper meaning

Sons Arise

- It also it carried the concept of you don't need to steal because this relationship has all your needs and provision with in it
- Matt 6:33 But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Sons Arise

- All they knew was 430 years of slavery, and you hear:
- “You shall take a day off”? Can you imagine what they felt
- We haven't had a day off in 430 years; and He's actually commanding us to have a day
- He wants to remind them that their identity and value did come from how many bricks they made

Sons Arise

- “You shall not lie” - wait a minute, in our new culture, we actually have to have integrity in our business dealings?
- It is not good business to have corruption because no one wants to do business with you.
- God is not trying to make people good, He's trying to make people free.

Sons Arise

- God is not proposing conditions for His love.
- You don't propose to someone that you don't already love
- This is God's marriage proposal to establish relationship with His people

Sons Arise

- God is not trying to make us good.
- Good compared to who? Him?
- God is trying to make us Free.
- His whole goal in this was to free people from slavery - to free people from what bound them up.

Sons Arise

- God is not offering a list of how to's to ensure that we are 'in'.
- This is not a list of things that you do, in order to make sure you get to heaven one day.
- This about enjoying our relationship with Him now

Sons Arise

- God's not trying to establish a relationship with fear and guilt.
- God is not saying you have to marry me whether you love me or not
- God wants to create a relationship out of freedom.
- God's laws, and His rules, are not conditions for relationship; they're confirmation that He wants us to have the best life

Sons Arise

- Relationship establishes relationship;
- You never establish a relationship with rules.
- You establish a relationship with love, and then boundaries maintain it.
- This was a totally different concept for them and for us

Sons Arise

- Ex 20:1 “I am the Lord your God, have no other Gods before Me”?
- Anochi Jehovah Elohim
- God wanted to create a culture, where everyone has the basic dignity in the image of God
- A culture so good, the whole world is going to want what we have.

Sons Arise

- He is establishing a community of people, who will be the light to the gentiles and one day bring forth the messiah.
- To have a culture and values in place so that salvation will come to the whole world
- Establish the kind of life, in a group of people, that the world can see what God looks like.

Sons Arise

- The first word of the Ten Commandments is the word “Anochi” - four Hebrew letters: Aleph, Nun, Chet, Yod.
- Hebrew language was originally pictures.
- So every Hebrew word is a comic strip.

Sons Arise

- The Aleph is the picture of: an ox head going into a yoke. It represents 'authority'.
- The first word of His marriage contract with them is: Anochi. The first letter is Authority.
- Nun is the picture of: fish multiplying. It has to do with multiplication, increasing

Sons Arise

- The Chet is the picture of a fence, or a hedge. It means to protect, or to separate, or like a boundary fence.
- So the idea of 'boundaries' is in the first word; the idea of multiplication; and authority.

Sons Arise

- The Yod is the picture of an upraised hand.
- It's the first letter of the word 'Judah', which means 'to praise'.
The upraised hand is to 'praise', or 'submit';.

Sons Arise

- Anochi
- Your authority is going to increase inside the hedge of praise and submission.
- I am the Lord your God. Have no other Gods before Me.
- Sums up the Ketubah

Sons Arise

- “I am the Lord your God, who is choosing to bless you with freedom from slavery, not because of anything you've done, but because I love you, and want all the people of the world to know that I am a loving God.
- Welcome to being human again.” That is the first line of the Ten Commandments.

Sons Arise

- What would happen if we created that environment for other people?
- What would happen if our life actually became a response to Anochi?
- We'd have a group of people committed to turning the world upside down - to helping the poor, sick, disadvantaged
- Being authentic and safe generous

Sons Arise

- Philip was in a town called Heliopolis, and Caesar built columns in the town.
- He said: you have to walk through those columns, to pay homage to me as God.
- Philip walked around the columns - He wouldn't go through them, so the authorities of the city brought him and his family out; and they said: you're going to walk through those columns. He said: I will not.

Sons Arise

- He had six children. They took the youngest and killed it. He said: now you'll walk through. He said: I will not.
- The story goes that his children screamed out: dad, dad, don't do it! God is worth more than that! Wow!
- They understood Ketubah

Sons Arise

- So one at a time, they killed Philip's children.
- Then they got to his wife, and she said: don't do it - Gods plan for these people, is worth more than you giving in now - and they killed her.

Sons Arise

- Then they got to him, and he said: kill me if you like, I won't walk through.
- They said: we're not going to kill you; we're going to let you live with the fact that your family died.
That was Philip.

Sons Arise

- One of the greatest revivals ever to happen, happened after that; and then the story goes that the Roman platoon, who was in charge of the killing, actually came to Philip later and said: you must serve the one true God - tell us about Him.

Sons Arise

- Philip led every one of those people, who killed his family, to the Lord; and later they came back to him, and they said: can we call you dad?
- We took your children away from you, but we'd like to be your children now. Can we call you dad?

Sons Arise

- He said: absolutely. I did it, so that you could have Anochi; that the church will find it's greatness in making a life's response, that makes our whole life about responding to Gods offer - to increase our authority inside the hedge of praise and submission.

Sons Arise

- We don't get authority by aggressiveness; or through demands.
- We actually gain our authority through being generous, and serving, kind and compassionate, gracious, slow to anger.
- The kingdom is about true love

Sons Arise

- “I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt, to be your God. Have no other Gods before Me”. That is the message of the Ten Commandments.
- Jesus wants to invite each of us to go deeper in our relationship

Sons Arise

- God's desire is a marriage relationship with us
- A Ketubah is a marriage contract made under a huppah or covering cloud
- Jesus went to the cross to prepare a place for us, a marriage chamber in us
- He was resurrected and came back for us so we could have a wedding.

- Let the Jesus take you to the throne of grace

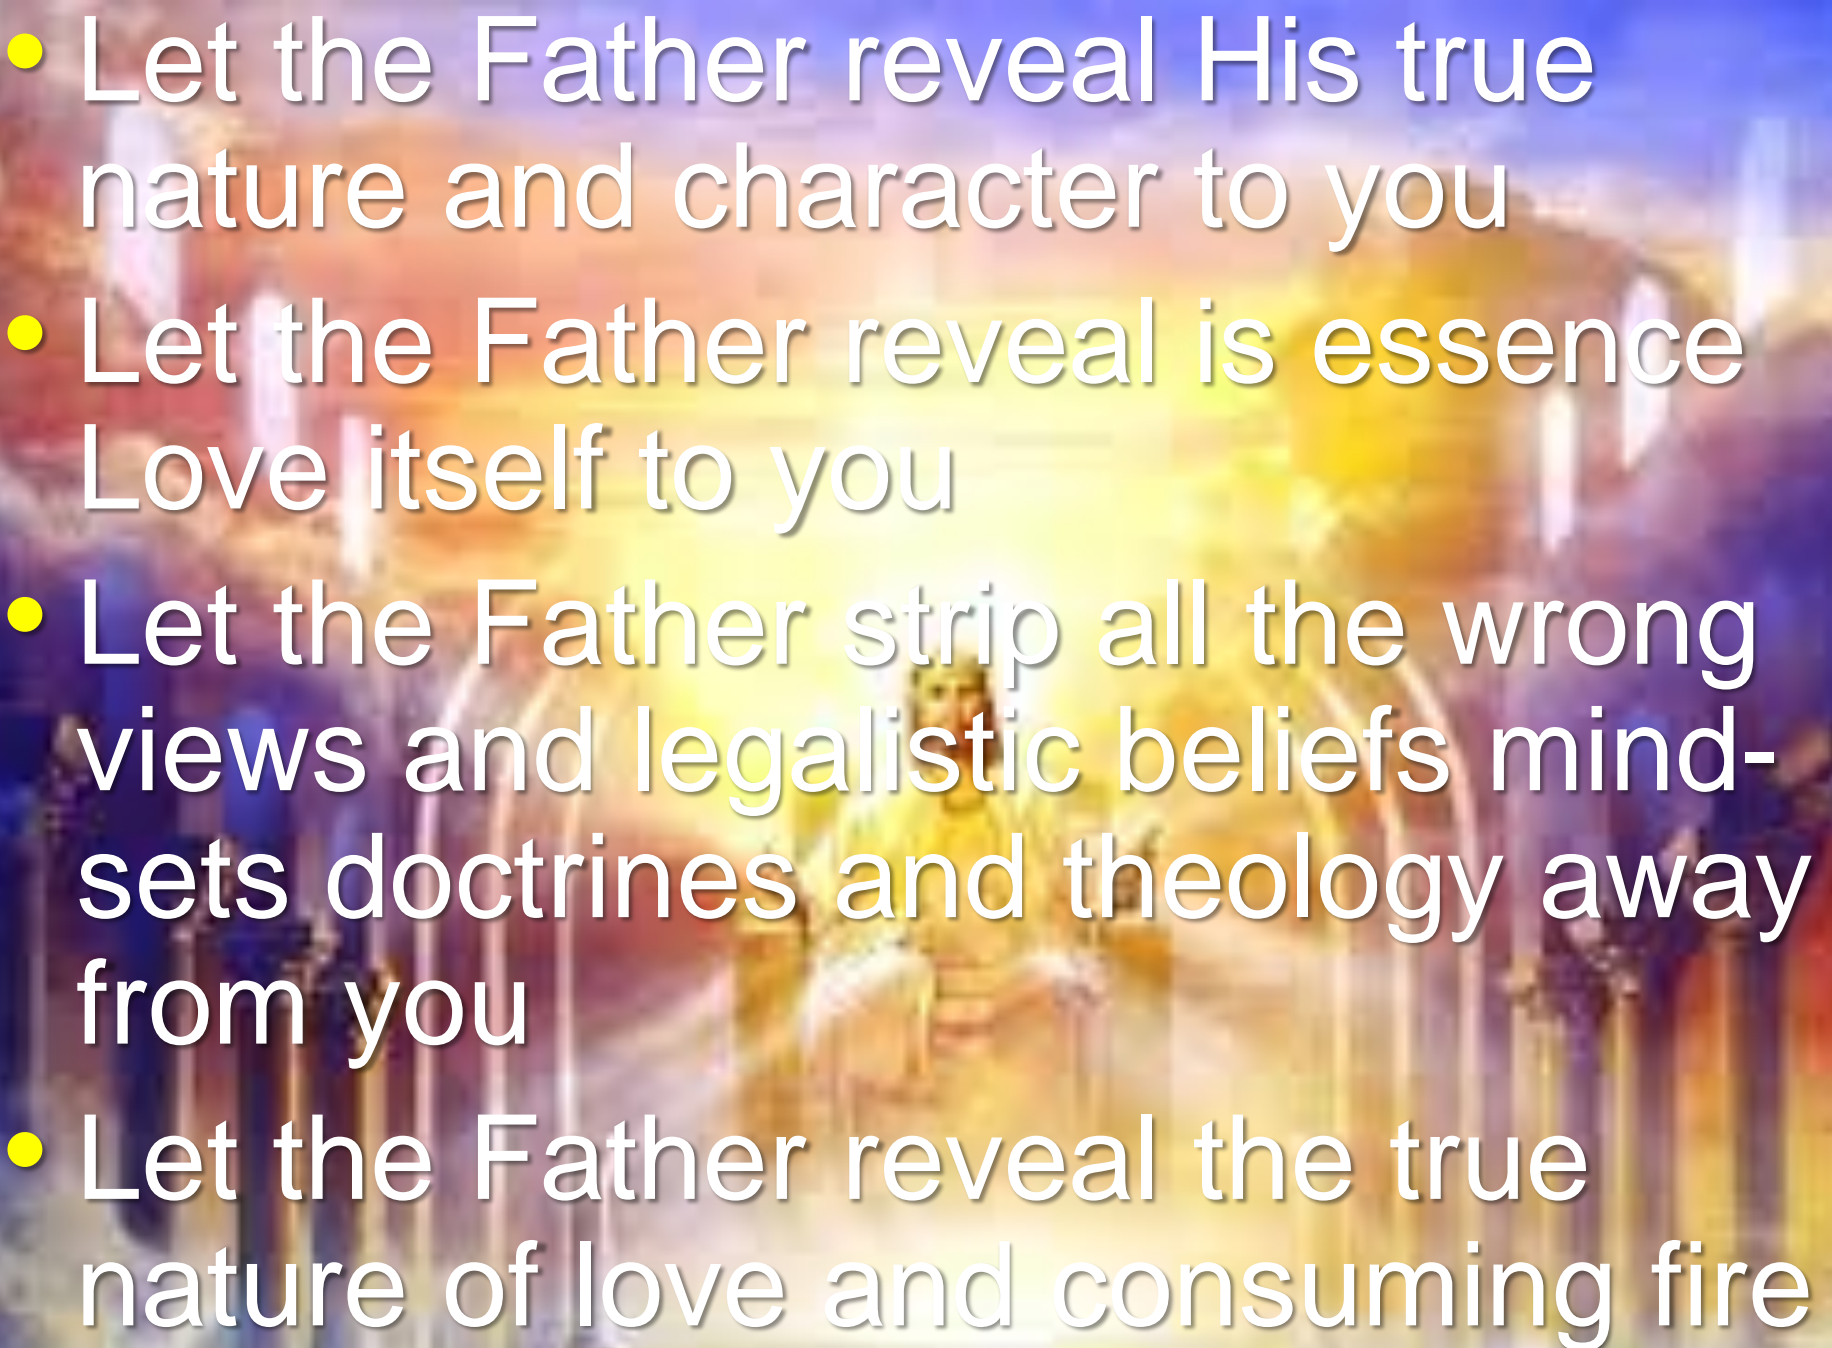

- Let the Father place you on His lap
- Feel the rhythm of His heart
- Enter into the rest of pure love joy and peace

- Let the Father reveal His true nature and character to you
 - Let the Father reveal His essence Love itself to you
 - Let the Father strip all the wrong views and legalistic beliefs mind-sets doctrines and theology away from you
 - Let the Father reveal the true nature of love and consuming fire
