- Investiture, Succession, Enthronement, Coronation
- Identity releases position and position released authority
- These positions are not earned by performance but given as rights
- Maturity is not about performance but a realised identity being releases doing

Sons Arise

- Investiture – we are all invested with His identity as sons with the birthright of a heavenly position and heavenly roles and responsibilities
- Succession – old king or queen dies or abdicates – separation of soul and spirit, surrender of the seat of rest and government

Sons Arise

- Enthronement is the private ceremony where the king or queen is given the position and authority that is rightfully theirs
- Coronation is a public recognition of what has been done privately

Sons Arise

Sons Arise

- The rest of relationship leads to the responsibility of rulership
- He must be on the seat of rest and government in me on my mountain and my throne until I am seated on my throne in heaven as a fully mandated and manifested son of God

Sons Arise

- Kingdom is within us there is no end to the increase of His government (kingdom) and peace, shalom, wholeness
- Therefore the kingdom must also increase, expand and grow in me and through me and around me.

Sons Arise

- So there is a place where you rule where you are the mountain which has a throne,
- The nature of the rulership we are called to is to raise people up into their own places of authority and power, not to keep them down and subservient
